5 Be it &c. that the not comming of the Lord Chancelor and Lord Treaſorer, or of eyther of them at the day of adiornment in any ſuch ſuit of error depending by vertue of the ſaid former eſtatute (viz 31.E.3.cap.12. ſupra 2.) ſhall not bee any diſcontinuance of any ſuch writ of error. But if both the chiefe Iuſtices of eyther bench, or any one of the ſaid great officers, the Lord Chancelor or L. Treaſorer, ſhall not come to the Exchequer chamber, & there be preſent at the day of adiornment in ſuch ſuit of Error, it ſhall be no diſcontinuance, but the ſute ſhall proceed in law to all intents and purpoſes, as if both the Lord Chauncelor and Lord Treaſorer had commen and beene preſent at the day & place of adiornment. Prouided alwaies, that no iudgement ſhall be giuen in any ſuch ſuite or writ of Error, vnles both the Lord Chauncelor & Lord Treaſorer ſhal be preſent thereat. And whereas in the Parliament holden in the xxvii. yeare of the raigne of our moſt gratious Soueraigne Lady the Queenes Maieſtie, one act or ſtatute was made, intituled, An act for redreſſe of erronious iudgements in the court commonly called the K. bench: By which it is amongſt other thinges enacted, That where any iudgment ſhall at any time then after be giuen in the ſaid court of kings bench in any ſuit or action of debt, detinue, couenant, account, action vpō the caſe, eiection firme, or treſpaſſe, firſt commenced or to be firſt commenced there, other then ſuch onely where the Queenes Maieſtie ſhall be party: The partie plaintife or defendant againſt whom any ſuch iudgment ſhal be giuē may at his election ſue forthout of the court of chancery, a ſpeciall writ of Error, to be deuiſed in the ſaid court of Chauncery, directed to the chiefe Iuſtice of the ſaid court of the Kings Bench for the time being, commaunding him to cauſe the ſaid Record and all thinges concerning the ſaid iudgement, to be brought before the Iuſtices of the common Bench, and the Barons of the Exchequer, into the Exchequer chamber there to bee examined by the ſaid Iuſtices of the common Bench and Barons aforeſaid, which ſaid Iuſtices of the common Bench, and ſuch Barons of the Exchequer as are of the degree of the Coife, or ſixe of them at the leaſt, by vertue of the ſame Act, ſhall thereupon haue full power and authoritie to examine all ſuch errors as ſhall be aſſigned or found, in, or vpon anie ſuch iudgement, and thereupon to reuerſe or affirme the ſaid iudgement, as the law ſhall require, other then for errors to be aſſigned or found, for or concerning the iuriſdiction of the ſaid Court of Kings bench, or for any want of forme in anie writte, returne, plaint, bill, declaration or other pleading, proceſſe, verdict or proceeding whatſoeuer. Foraſmuch as it doth manie times fall out, that the full number of the ſaid Iuſtices of the common Bench, and Barons of the Exchequer ſo authorized by the ſaid ſtatute, ſometimes for want of health, ſometimes through other weightie ſeruices, and earneſt occaſions can not bee preſent at the dayes and times of the returnes, and continuances of the ſame writs of Error: And by reaſon of their abſence and not comming, the ſaid writs of Error are diſcontinued, Iuſtice delayed, and the parties put to begin new ſuit, to their great charges and preiudice: For remedie thereof bee it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that from henceforth, if the full number of the Iuſtices and Barons, authorized by the ſaid act, come not at the day or time of returne, or continuance of any ſuch writ of Error, That it ſhall bee lawfull for any three of the ſaid Iuſtices and Barons, at euery of the ſaid dayes and times, to receiue writs of Error, to award proceſſe thereupon, to make and prefixe dayes from time to time, of and for the continuance af all ſuch writs of Error as ſhall bee there returned, certified or depending. And that the ſame ſhall bee to theſe reſpects as good and auaileable, as if all the Iuſtices and Barons authorized by the ſame act, were preſent. And that the Iuſtices and Barons authorized by the ſaid Statute, may after that lawfullie proceede in all thoſe caſes in ſuch ſort to all intentes, as they may doe in other caſes mentioned in the ſaide Statute, anie not comming of anie of the ſaid Iuſtices or Barons notwithſtanding. Prouided neuertheles, that no iudgement ſhall be giuen in any ſuch ſuite or error, vnles it be by ſuch full number of the ſaid Iuſtices & Barons as are in that behalfe authorized and appointed by the ſaid Acte.

The King commandeth that all maner of Bailifes, Shirifes, and other miniſters, aſwell the Iuſtices of Cheſter, & other Bailifes there, as other, ſhall of their receites of iſſues, of wardes, of eſcheates, and of their bailywikes, be anſwerable in the Eſchequer, and there ſhall make accompt to the Treaſorer and Barons of the ſame place. And that all Shirifes, Farmors, Bailifes of franchiſes, and other which ought to come at the proffer of the Eſchequer, the next day after the feaſt of Saint Michaell, and the next day after the clauſe of Eaſter, for to pay their farmes, rents, & iſſues belonging to the king, ſhall come at the foreſaid termes, and bring the foreſaid farmes, rents, & iſſues due, wholy into the Eſchequer, as before is mentioned, And if any make default, their bodies ſhall remaine without departing from thence, vntill they haue paied or made agreement. And he that will not come at the termes aforeſaid, ſhall be amerced after the cuſtome of the Eſchequer. And the Shirifes and Bailifes at the ſame termes, ſhall bring and pay ſuch money as they haue receiued of the ſummons of the Eſchequer, and other the kings debts. And ſhall be prepared & readie to make ſhew of their accompt of the things aforeſaid. And that all Bailifes of franchiſes which ought to leuie the Kings debts, and to aunſwere to the Shirifes at their commaundement, according to the extreates of the ſummons of the Eſchequer, ſhall come and aunſwere ſufficiently, And ſuch as doe not, their bodies ſhall remaine in the ward of the Shirifes, and for their default, the Shirifes ſhall cauſe the debtes to be leuied by their owne bailifes, as they may, as they haue vſed to doe in time paſt. And if the Bailifes doe not come at the day that the Shirifes ſhall giue them knowledge of, the Shirifes ſhall enter into the ſame franchiſes, & leuie the debts in the ſame maner. Concerning the Iuſtices of Cheſter and the Bailifes therof, the king willeth that they, or one of them ſhall come at the proffer of S. Michaell euery yeere, & bring aſmuch as they owe vnto the king at that terme, and at the proffer of the Vtas of Eaſter they ſhall come likewiſe & bring in that that they owe to the king for that terme. And the Iuſtices of Cheſter ſhall haue day to accompt from yeere to yeere in quindena Paſchæ, and the Bailifes thereof the next day after the clauſe of Eaſter. And that all Shirifes of England, except the Shirifes of Weſtmerland, Lancaſter, Worceſter, Rutland, and Cornewall, ſhall from henceforth keepe all ſuch wardes and eſcheats which be not in the fees belonging to the king, which be within their Shires, and of the iſſues thereof they ſhall aunſwere truely in the Eſchequer at the termes aforeſaid. And at their Turnes that they ſhall make in their Shires, they ſhall do the offices of ſuch other things as the kings Eſcheators haue vſed to doe, for that that belongeth vnto the king, once or twice in the yeere, to as litle grieuance of the people as they can, And the Shirifes ſhall ſeiſe the Eſcheats that fall, to remaine vnto the king in fee, & ſhall certifie the king of them without delay. And the king ſhall aſſigne three able perſons, that ſhal go throughout the Realme to ſuruey and extend the wardes & eſcheats aforeſaid from yeere to yeere, when they ſhall thinke requiſite. And the Shirifes by their councel ſhall improue & let to farme, or otherwiſe, ſuch wardes and eſcheats, as they ſhall thinke moſt for the kinges aduantage. And touching the v. ſhires before named, the king will, that the Shirif of Cumberland ſhal execute the office of the Eſchetor in the ſhires of Weſtmerland, & Lancaſter. And the Shirife of Notingham in Rutland, & the Shirife of Gloceſter in Worceſter, & the Shirif of Deuonſhire in Cornewall, & ſhal ſafely keepe his wards & eſcheats in the ſame ſhires, and ſhall anſwere in the Eſcheq. for the iſſues of them, as for their own ſhires. And the three perſons aforeſaid, ſhal ſuruey & extend ſuch wardes & Eſcheats, aſwell there as in other places, and they ſhalbe improoued by their councell. And when yͤ Shirifes do accompt for their ſhires, they ſhall alſo accompt for ſuch wards & Eſcheats. And in like maner ſhal the Iuſtices of Cheſter do, & their Bailifes alſo, euery one for his bailywike. And the ſaid iii. perſons ſhall keep the kings demeans, & ſhal approue them as they ſhall think beſt for the kings aduantage, & ſhall be anſwerable for the iſſues, and they ſhall haue power to let foorth ſmal mannors or demeanes, to the folke of the ſame places, or to other, according to their diſcretion, for a certeine ferme from yeere to yeere, as they ſhal think moſt to the kings profit. from yeere to yeere. And the principall Collectors of the cuſtome of woolles, at the two termes before mentioned, ſhall pay all ſuch money as they haue receiued of the ſaid cuſtome, and ſhall make account from yeere to yeere plainely of all parcels receiued in any of the Ports or other places of the Realme, ſo that they ſhall aunſwere of euery ſhip where it was charged, and how much it carried, and whoſe the wools were, and of euery other loading in the ſhip, whereof cuſtome is due, and of the whole receipt. And the Warden of the kings Wardrobe, ſhall make account yeerely in the Eſchequer, in the feaſt of S. Margaret. And the Treaſorer and Barons ſhall be charged by their oath, that they ſhall not attend to heare the plees or matters of other men, whiles they haue to doe with the kings buſineſſe, if it be not matter that concerneth the kinges owne debt. And when a Shirife, or Bailif hath begun his accompt, none other ſhall be receiued to accompt, vntill he that was firſt appointed hath cleerely accompted, and his money be receiued. And that the Conſtable, Marſhall, Chamberlaine, and other that are of fee in the Eſchequer, from henceforth ſhall preſent vnto the king ſuch as they ſhall put in their places to doe their offices, which muſt be of good fame, and ſufficient, for whoſe actes themſelues will aunſwere. And the King commaundeth the Treaſorer and Barons of the Eſchequer vpon their allegeance, and by the oath that they haue made to him, that they ſhall not admit others for them, that be not ſuch. And that the Eſchequer be not charged with moe perſons then is neceſſarie. And that none of them that be there ſworne to the king, ſhall put in his roome any other Clerke or lay perſon except he be ſworne, nor that without the ſpeciall licence of the Treaſorer, and if any doe ſo, he ſhall be forthwith remooued from his office, and that none other be receiued in his ſtead without the Kings licence. And if any that ſhall be put in without the Treaſorers licence, do treſpaſſe, he ſhall be neuertheleſſe puniſhed, and he alſo that put him in, according to the treſpas. And if both be vnſufficient, their ſuperiour ſhall be puniſhed, whether he be officer of fee or other. And the Treaſorer ſhall put no other in his roome, vntill he hath licence from the king. And if he that keepeth the roome of an other by licence of the Treaſorer, doth any thing that he ought not to doe, he ſhall be puniſhed according to the treſpaſſe, if he haue whereof, and if he haue not, he that put him in, ſhall be charged for his treſpas, and if he be not ſufficient, he that put him in office ſhall be charged, whether he be of fee or otherwiſe. And all they of this Court ſhall make oath, that if any of them may perceiue, that an other doth commit any offence, or other thing diſhoneſt in any office in this Court, or that he hath done before, that they ſhall certifie to the Treaſorer or Barons, or to ſome of them, and they ſhall returne it, And if neede require, they ſhall certifie it to the King. And that about the feaſt of S. Margaret, before that the Eſchequer be cloſed, they ſhall cauſe a ſearch to be made, whether any Shirife or Bailife, that ought to haue accompted the ſame yeere, haue not done ſo, and thereof a remembrance ſhall be made in a roll by it ſelfe. And if it be a Shirife, his accompt ſhall be firſt heard after Michaelmas, before that any other be receiued to accompt. And if he be a Bailife, he ſhall be ſummoned or diſtrained to come at a certaine day for to accompt, ſo that no accompt ſhall be ſuffered to ſleepe. And foraſmuch as Shirifes, Conſtables, and other, obtaine many times outragious allowances, by falſe teſtimonie for the kinges workes, and other things done and prouided by their commandement: It is prouided, that all Surueiors of the kings workes, ſhall be choſen by the oath of wiſe men, and ſhal be of ſuch as will and may attend beſt to the office. And that they be ſufficient to aunſwere the king if neede be, and ſhall ſweare that they ſhall beare true and lawfull witneſſe. And if the Treaſorer or Barons of the Eſchequer, haue any in ſuſpection of falſe allowances for workes, or other things, that the trueth be inquired, and he that is attainted, ſhall aunſwere to the king as much as the allowance amounteth vnto, and ſhall be impriſoned one yeere and xl. dayes, and ſhall be puniſhed at the kings pleaſure, And the Surueiors ſhall be puniſhed for their conſent. And likewiſe he that vpon his accompt, ſhall conceale and keepe ſecret ſuch things, whereof he ought to haue charged himſelfe, ſhall be puniſhed in like maner, as he that ſhall make any ſuch falſe allowances. And that the Iuſticers, Commiſſioners, and other, ſhall from henceforth deliuer into the Eſchequer, at the feaſt of S. Michaell, from yeere to yeere, the Extreats of fines and amerciaments, made and taxed before them, & of all things wherefore the extreats are wont to be deliuered there. And they of the Eſchequer ſhall make the extreats of the ſummons through all Shires: Sauing that the extreats in Eire of all plees ſhall be deliuered immediatly after the Eire made, Stat. of the Eſchequer, An. 51. 2 Edward by the grace of God &c. to our Treaſorer & Barons of the Eſchequer greeting. To the intent that prouiſion may be had for the indempnitie of vs and our people, in certaine caſes touching vs and our people aforeſaid, in our ſaid Court of Eſchequer: We will and prouide, that from henceforth the bodies of the Shires ſhall not be written in euery roll,but they ſhal be written in a certaine yeerely roll by themſelues, and euery thing ſhall be yeerely read vpon the Shirifes accompt in euery Countie, that it may be knowen if ought may eſcheat vnto vs by any maner meane. The remanents of the ſame ſhires ſhall be written by latter dates in the annual rols,and the Shirifes ſhalbe charged therewith: In which remanents the liueries and almes ordinary are allowed, and other allowances (if Shirifes haue had any) of the iſſues of their bailywikes by our writs of diuers allowances, to our grieuous dammage: For which we will & prouide,that of ſuch maner of allowances ſo to be made from henceforth, view ſhall be made in our Eſchequer, and the ſame view being faithfully made,the ſame Treaſorer and Barons ſhall certifie the Chauncelor of the ſaid allowances ſo to be made,& that the writs of allowances ſhall be made,according to the ſame certificat: Moreouer,there ſhall be written in the ſame annuall rols, the farmes of the Shirifes, the profits of Counties,the farmes of Sericants,& aſſertes,the farmes of Cities,boroughes,and townes, and other farmes, whereof there is anſwere made yeerely in the Eſchequer. And in them alſo ſhall be written all ſtalled, & all groſſe debts,whereof is hope that ſomewhat ſhall be paied againe. Item all debts that ſeeme to be cleere, when it is comen vnto accompt,or to the title of new obligations. Nothing ſhall be written in the annuall roll,but thoſe debts whereof there is hope of payment, and whereof the Shirife is anſwerable, and debts that ſeeme cleere in the originals. Of dead farmes, & debts deſperate,one roll ſhall be made, and ſhall be inrolled and read euery yeere vpon the accompts of Shirifes,and the debts wherof the Shirife is anſwerable,ſhal be written in the annuall roll,& there ſhall be acquited. Moreouer we will and prouide,that it ſhall be proclaimed in euery Countie, that all they that haue Tailes of the Eſchequer for the debts of themſelues, or their aunceſtors, hitherto paied vſually there, & not yet allowed,which ſhal come out ſtill in the ſummons of the Eſchequer,that ſuch Tailes ſhal be deliuered to the Shirifes,to be allowed at the Eſchequer at their accompts. And the ſhirifes ſhal make to them, of whō they ſhall ſo receiue tailes, their writings, witneſſing yͤ receit of thoſe tails, deputing two faithfull knights thereunto,between whom & the ſaid Shirifes, Indentures ſhall be made of ſuch receits, with the ſeales of them both interchangeably: And the foreſaid Knights deputed thereunto,ſhall ſend the parts of their Indentures,at the terme appointed vnto the Eſchequer in forme aforeſaid, to the end that by the view & witneſſes of them, the ſaid tailes ſo receiued by the ſhirifes may be ſhewed,and be allowed vpon their accompts. Moreouer it ſhalbe proclaimed,that except thoſe that haue ſuch Tailes do offer them to the Shirifes & knights to be executed, as afore is ſaid, that they ſhal be diſtrained for the whole debt,and the tayles to be reputed for vnpaied. Moreouer that the debts which yet come into the ſummons of the Eſchequer,whereof the debtors do proffer tailes againſt diuers Shirifs, ſhall be defaulked and acquited. We prouide that certaine perſons aſſigned thereunto on our behalfe, ſhall be ſent into euery Shire, which ſhall haue full power to inquire of ſuch maner debts,& alſo to call afore them ſolemnlie, aſwell the Shirifes, as their heires & aſſignes, and the tenants of their lands,in caſe they be dead that haue receiued the debts,and alſo if neede be to proceede to the taking of Inqueſts,whether the parties(againſt whom the foreſaid tayles were ſhewed) doe come or not; ſo that the Shirife do firſt returne that he hath reaſonably ſummoned them thereof, and the troth being inquired and diſcuſſed in preſence of the parties (if they will be there) the Inquiſitors ſhall make rolls of that that ſhall be conuict & confeſſed afore them, and the inrollment being made,the Tailes of the ſame ſhal be forthwith broken. And the Shirifes ſhall haue in their cuſtodie the tranſcripts of the ſame rolles, vnder the ſeales of the Inquiſitors,and ſhall ſurceaſe in making diſtreſſes for the debts contained in the ſame, vntil they ſhal haue otherwiſe in commandement from vs therefore. And the foreſaid inquiſitors ſhal ſend vnto yͤ Eſcheq. the foreſaid rols vnder their ſeals,that it may be examined there by ſearch to bee made therefore, what debts be payed in the whole,& what are paied in part, & what debts there be,whereof the debtors be not acquited,according as ſhal be conuenient to be done. Moreouer we will and prouide, that the Chamberlaines from henceforth ſhal not make to the ſhirifs,or any of their bailifes Tailes diuidendi,vnleſſe they

And this alſo is to be vnderſtood where any inheritance diſcendeth to any that is borne in the partes beyond the Sea, whoſe aunceſters were from the time of king Iohn, vnder the alleageance of the kings of Fraunce, and not of the kings of England, as late it happened of the Barony of Monmouth, after the death of Iohn of Monmouth, whoſe heires were of Britaine, and of other places. 2 Becauſe of the trouble which hath bene heretofore vppon the accompts of ſhirifes in the Eſchequer, becauſe that in the Eſtreates of the rolles of the Chancerie, which haue bin yeerely deliuered into the Eſchequer, the accompts thereof haue bene mingled: the king will therefore that from henceforth the Eſtreats bee made in manner following, Firſt ſhalbe entred the fines which moſt commonly happen, as to haue writs and al other fines wherin the ſumme of money is expreſſed, And all theſe maner of fines of one countie for the whole yeere ſhalbe written by themſelues in one place, and by order of prioritie,according as the fines ſhalbe entred in the rolles. And alſo of all other Counties generally whatſoeuer ſhal happen to follow in any one countie. And for the more ready recourſe to the rolles, if that any thing in time to come ſhalbe doubted of, either of the number or other letter in the eſtreate: the date of the day when the fine was made, ſhall bee entred into the Eſtreat which is deliuered into Th'eſchequer. And after thoſe fines, then ſhalbe entred charters, letters pattents and commiſſions,in which any farme or yeerely rent is due to the king,or wherein any accompts are to be made,& theſe ſhal be writtẽ by compties ſeuerally after the readieſt maner. Alſo in the ſame Eſtreat, ſhall bee entred the other charters of gift, by which the king ought to haue ſeruice, ſo that the court may haue knowledge of the times, when the reliefes and ſeruices are to be demanded. And there ſhal be entred in the ſame Eſtreate, the names of al thoſe which that yere ſhalbe aſſigned to heare and inquire of,or to do any thing, where by fine or amerciament,or other profit appertaining to the king might percaſe, or ought to ariſe, ſo that thereby commaundement may be ſent to ſend vp the Eſtreats of the ſame. And in the end of the Eſtreat the rediſſeiſins and ſurcharging of paſtures as before hath beene: Becauſe that Iuſtices, Inquirors and others which are aſſigned to diuers buſineſſe to heare and determine, ought yeerely to deliuer into the Eſchequer their eſtreates of fines and amerciamẽts made and taxed before them,& of al other things happening by meanes of thoſe buſineſſes, which to the king doth appertain, ſo that he may of the ſame be duely anſwered. And oftentimes it happeneth that diuers of thoſe Eſtreates bee kept back ſo long before they be deliuered into the eſchequer,that the king hath by means thereof great loſſe and damage. And in time of his father,(See Eſchequer 1.)it was ordeined amongſt other that Iuſtices and Inquirors, whatſoeuer they were, and all others which ought to deliuer Eſtreats into the Eſchequer, ſhould cauſe them to bee deliuered from yeere to yeere at the feaſt of Saint Michael. Item charge & commandement be giuen to the clerke of the market, & of meaſures, that he deliuer his eſtreates for ſo much as appertaineth to his office in the forme aboueſayde. And the Warden of the Aulnage ſhall deliuer yeerely to the Treaſourer of the Eſchequer, the eſtreats of his office, wherein ſhall bee contained all the defaults which hee hath found of clothes throughout the Realme, and alſo where and when, and to whom the cloths did appertaine, which hee found contrary to the aſſiſe, and the price, and to whom he hath deliuered them, where and when, & by what warrant. Alſo the Butler for the King for the time being be charged, that all the wines which hee ſhall prouide for the kings vſe, either by himſelfe or by his Atturncis, in what place ſoeuer it ſhall happen to be, that he ſhal make the ſame prouiſion by the view of the honeſteſt men in the Towne, where the ſame purueiance ſhal happen to be, ſo that alwaies the ſame purueiance may be witneſſed by the voice of two of the beſt of the ſame place. Feoffements.

ITem becauſe it is complained to the king, that many people of his ſaid Realme, aſwel great as ſmall, hauing right and true title, aſwell to lands, tenements, and rents, as in perſonall actions, be wrongfully delayed of their right, becauſe that the occupiers & defendants being maintained and ſuſtained in their wrong, doe commonly make gifts and Feoffements of their lands and tenements which be in debate, and of their other goods and cattels, to Lords and other great men of the Realme, againſt whom the ſaid purſuants for great manace that is made to them, may not, nor dare not make their purſuits: And alſo on the other part, complaint is made to the king, that oftentimes many people do diſſeiſe other of their tenements, and anone after the diſſeiſin done, they make diuers alienations and feoffements, ſometime to Lords & great men of the Realme, to haue maintenance, & ſometime to many perſons of whoſe names the diſſeiſees can haue no knowledge, to the intent to defer & delay by ſuch fraudes the ſaid diſſeiſees, & the other demandants & their heires of their recouerie, to the great annoyance & oppreſſion of the people: It is ordeined & eſtabliſhed, that from henceforth no gift of feoffement of lands, tenemẽts or goods be made by ſuch fraud & maintenance, and if any be in ſuch wiſe made, they ſhall be holden for none, and of no value. And the ſaid diſſeiſees ſhall from henceforth haue their recouerie againſt the firſt diſſeiſors, aſwell of the lands and tenements, as of their double damages, without hauing regard to ſuch alienations, ſo that the diſſeiſees commence their ſuits within the yeere next after the diſſeiſin done. And it is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the ſame ſtatute ſhall hold place in euery other

IT ſhall be commaunded to all the Shirifes of England, and elſewhere, where neede ſhall require, to crie and publiſh within liberties and without, that all the Lords which haue Faires, be it for yeelding certain farme for the ſame to the king, or otherwiſe, ſhall hold the ſame for the time that they ought to hold it, and no longer: that is to ſay, ſuch as haue them by the kings Charters graunted them, for the time limitted by the ſaid Charters: And alſo they that haue them without charter, for the time that they ought to hold them of right. And that euery Lord at the beginning of his Faire, ſhall there do crie, and publiſh how long the Faire ſhall indure, to the intent that Marchants ſhall not be at the ſame Faires ouer the time ſo publiſhed, vpon paine to be grieuouſly puniſhed towards the king. Nor the ſaid Lords ſhall not hold them ouer the due time, vpon paine to ſeiſe the Faires into the kings hands, there to remaine till they haue made fine to the king for the offence, after it be duely found that the Lords held the ſame Faires longer then they ought, or that the Marchants haue ſitten aboue the time ſo cried and publiſhed, An. 2.E. 2.cap. 15.apud North.

FOraſmuch as of late, many barbarous behauiours haue bene committed by irreligious perſons, by brawling and fraying openly in the Churches and Churchyards: Be it &c. that if any perſon whatſoeuer, ſhall at any time after the firſt day of May next comming, by wordes onely, quarrell, chide or brawle in any Church or Churchyard, that then it ſhal be lawfull to the Ordinarie of the place where the ſame offence ſhal be done and proued by two lawfull witneſſes, to ſuſpend euery perſou ſo offending, that is to ſay: if he be a Lay man, ab ingreſſu Eccleſiæ: and if he be a Clerke, from the adminiſtration of his office, for ſo long time as the ſaide Ordinary ſhall by his diſcretion thinke meete and conuenient according to the fault. FOraſmuch as fines leuied in the Court ought and do make an end of al ſutes, and thereof are called fines, chiefly when and next vnto trialles by battell, or the great aſſiſe in their caſes, they hold the moſt and final place for euer. And now by a certaine time paſſed, aſwell in the time of king Henry of famous memorie our father, as in our time, the parties to ſuch fines and their heires, contrarie to the lawes of our Realme of auncient time vſed, were admitted to adnull and defeat ſuch fine, alleaging, that before the fine leuied, and at the leuying thereof, and ſince, the demandants or plaintifs, or their aunceſtors were alway ſeiſed of the landes contained in the fine, or of ſome parcell thereof, and ſo fines lawfully leuied, were many times vniuſtly defeated and adnulled by iurors of the countrey, falſly & maliciouſly procured: We therefore intending to prouide a remedie in the premiſſes, in our parliament at Weſtminſter haue ordeined,

And let the Iuſtices ſee that ſuch notes and fines as hereafter ſhall bee leuied in our court,be read openly and ſolemnely, and that in the meane time all plees ſhall ceaſe, and this muſt be two certaine dayes in the weeke, according to the diſcretion of the Iuſtices. Prouided alway, that if any perſon aged or decrepit, or impotent by caſualtie, bee ſo oppreſſed and holden, that by no meane hee is able to come before you in our court, then in ſuch caſe wee will, that two or one of you, by aſſent of the reſidue of ẏ bench, ſhall viſite the partie ſo diſeaſed, and ſhall receiue his cogniſance vpon the plee and forme of the plee that he hath in our court, whereupon the ſame fine ought to be leuied. And if there goe but one, hee ſhall take with him an Abbot, a Prior or a Knight, a man of good fame and credence,& ſhall certifie you thereof by recorde, ſo that all thinges incident to the ſame fine being examined by him or them,the ſame fines according to our forme and ordinance, may bee lawfully leuied:yet wee will not that any of our Barons of the Eſchequer, or our Iuſtices, ſhal admit any atturneis but onely in plees and matters that paſſe afore them in the benches, & in places where they be aſſigned by vs. And the ſame power of admitting Atturneis, we prohibite and denie to the clerkes and ſeruants of the ſaid Barons and Iuſtices: And do ordeine, that if any Atturneis bee admitted hereafter by any of the perſons aforeſaid, their admiſſion ſhall bee of none effect: Reſerued alway to the Chanceller for the time beeing, his authoritie in admitting atturneis,according to whoſe diſcretion they ſhall be admitted, and to thoſe our Iuſtices as heretofore hath bene obſerued in the admiſſion of atturneis: We wil alſo that this our ordinance ſhall take effect and begin at the vtas of the Trinitie next enſuing. 6 Where in the Parliament begun and holden at London, the third day of Nouember, in the xxi. yeere of the reigne of our moſt dread ſoueraigne Lord king Henry the eight, and from thence adiourned to Weſtminſter, and there holden & continued by diuers prorogations, vntill the diſſolution thereof: it was among other thinges eſtabliſhed and enacted, that the kinges Maieſtie, his heires and ſucceſſors, for the augmentation and maintenance of the royall eſtate of his Imperiall Crowne & dignitie, of ſupreame head of the Church of England, ſhould yeerely haue, take, inioy, and receiue, vnited, and knit vnto his Imperiall Crowne for euer, one yeerely rent or pencion, amounting to the value of the tenth part of all the reuenues, rents, farmes, tythes, offerings, emoluments, and of all other profites, aſwell called ſpirituall as temporall, then apperteining or belonging, or that afterward from thenceforth ſhould belong to any Archbiſhopricke, Biſhopricke, Abbacie, Monaſterie, Priorie, Archdeaconrie, Deanrie, Hoſpitall, College, houſe collegiate, prebende, cathedrall church, collegiate church, conuentuall church, parſonage, vicarage, chaunterie, free chappell, or other benefice or promotion ſpirituall, of what name, nature, or qualitie ſoeuer they were, within any Dioces of this Realme, or in Wales, the ſaid pencion or annuell rent, to be yeerely paied for euer, to our ſaid Soueraigne Lord, to his heires and ſucceſſors kings of this Realme, at the feaſt of the Natiuitie of our Lord God, as by the ſame Act among diuers other thinges therein conteyned, more plainly is ſhewed and may appeare. And where alſo at the parliament, begun at Weſtminſter the xxviii. day of Aprill, in the 31. yeere of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the kings moſt gracious raigne: and afterward continued by diuers and ſundry prorogations, vntill the diſſolution thereof, there was by aucthoritie of the ſaid parliament, erected and eſtabliſhed a certaine court, called the Court of the Firſt fruites and Tenthe. And it was further enacted by the aucthoritie of the ſaid parliament, that the ſaid Firſt fruits and Tenthes, and all the reuenues and profites thereof, which then were, or hereafter from henceforth ſhould grow or be, by any maner of meanes, ſhould be from henceforth in the order, ſuruey, and gouernance of the ſaid Court of the Firſt fruites and Tenthe, and miniſters of the ſame, as by the ſame act among diuers other thinges therein conteined plainly appeareth. Sithence the making of which ſaid Act, our Soueraigne Lord, of his moſt gracious and bleſſed diſpoſition, by his moſt gracious ſeuerall Letters patents, hath made, erected, incorporate, and eſtabliſhed within this his Realme, diuers and ſundrie Biſhops, and Sees of Biſhops, that is to ſay, Iohn now Biſhop of Cheſter, Iohn now Biſhop of Glouceſter, Iohn now Biſhop of Peterborough, Paule now Biſhop of Briſtoll, & Robert now Biſhop of Oxenford: and by the ſame his ſeuerall and ſundry Letters patents, hath ſunderly and ſeuerally giuen and graunted vnto the ſaid Biſhops diuers and ſundry manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments. In which ſaid ſeuerall Letters patents there been reſerued vnto his highnes, his heires and ſucceſſors, certaine yeerely rents and pencions, amounting to the tenth of the ſame manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, ſo ſeuerally giuen to the ſaid ſeuerall Biſhops, to be paied and payable yeerely in our ſaid ſoueraigne Lord the kinges Court of Augmentations of the reuenues of his Crowne, as in the ſaid ſeuerall letters patents more plainly appeareth. And foraſmuch as by the ſaid former eſtatutes, the ſaid Biſhops been compelable euerie one of them to pay the Tenthes of his or their poſſeſſions, annexed to their ſeueral Biſhoprickes, in our ſaid ſoueraigne Lord the kings Court of Firſt fruites and Tenth, the ſaid Biſhops be, and ſhall be double charged, and chargeable with the payments of the ſaid rents and pencions, reſerued and to be paied, as is aforeſaid, for that that the payments thereof in one of the ſaid Courts, is no diſcharge in the other, contrarie to the true intent and meaning of the kings highnes, and to the great hurt & decay of the ſaid Biſhops, and their ſucceſſors, if ſpeedy remedie be not therefore prouided: For reformation whereof be it enacted and ordeined by aucthoritie of this preſent parliament, that all the yerely rents, tenthes, & pencions, as is, or be aboue rehearſed, reſerued, in, and by all and ſingular the kings highnes ſaid ſeuerall letters patents, made of any manors, lands, tenements, parſonages appropriate, or other hereditaments whatſoeuer they be, ſithen the xxviii. day of Aprill, in the ſaid 31. yeere of the raigne of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord, to any the ſaid ſeuerall Biſhops, ſhall from the firſt day of May next comming, be in the rule, gouernance, and ſuruey of the ſaid Court of firſt Fruits and Tenth. And be it further enacted by the auctoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid Biſhops, nor their ſucceſſours, ne any of them, ſhall at any time hereafter be impeached, or ſued in the ſaid Court of Firſt fruites and Tenthe, of, or for any Tenth, yeerely rent, or pencion, reſerued in or by any of the ſaid ſeuerall Letters patents, which now is, or before the ſaid firſt day of May next comming ſhall be due vnto the Kinges highnes. And that all and ſinguler proces and ſuites now had and purſued, or hereafter on this ſide the ſaid firſt day of May to be had or ſued out of the ſaid Court of Firſt fruites and Tenthe, againſt any of the ſaid Byſhops newly erected and made, as is aforeſaid, of, for, or concerning onely any yeerely rent, pencion, or Tenthes, reſerued vpon, or by any of the ſaid Letters patents, ſhall ceaſe and be clerely void to all intents and purpoſes, An.34.H.8.cap.17.

And that no Incumbent making ſuch default of payment, ſhall be therefore made vnable to take or inioy, any other benefice or promocion ſpirituall, or incurre any penaltie, forfaiture, or loſſe, to be paied by them, their executors or aſſignes, for the ſame default, other then in this preſent act is heretofore expreſſed: any thing in the ſaid former act, or any other ſtatutes or actes conteyned to the contrarie notwithſtanding. Prouided alway, that the ſaid former Act, concerning the payment of the ſaid yeerely rent and pencion, amounting to the Tenth part of euery ſuch dignitie, benefice, or promocion ſpirituall, and euery other act touching the ſame, and all articles, clauſes, and ſentences in them, or any of them, mencioned, expreſſed, or conteined, now being in his or their force and effect, other then ſuch as by this preſent Act be already qualified or moderated, ſhall ſtand and abide in all his or their full ſtrength, effect, and vertue: any thing in this preſent act conteined notwithſtanding, An.2.& 3.Ed.6.cap.20.

Prouided alwayes, that they which keepe their poſſeſſions with force, in any lands and tenements, whereof they or their anceſtors haue continued their poſſeſſion in the ſame by iii. yeeres or more, bee not indammaged by force of the ſaide Statute. 20 Whereas certaine people that be put out of the Foreſt for the purliew, and by the great men haue made requeſt to our Soueraigne Lord the king at his parliament, that they might be acquited of their charge, and of things that the foreſters demand of them, as they were wont to be: Our ſoueraigne Lord the king anſwered: Firſt, that where he had graunted purliew, that he was pleaſed that it ſhould ſtand in like maner as it was granted, albeit that the thing were ſued and demaunded in an euill point. 21 If any forreſter ſhall finde any man attachable for greene vew in his foreſt, firſt he ſhall attach him by ii. pledges, if they be to be found, if not, he ſhalbe brought to the next towne where they may be found. And if they bee afterward found, hee ſhall attach him by iiii. pledges. And if the third time, he ſhall be preſented before the Verdors, and bee put by viii. pledges, afterward after the third attachment, his bodie ſhall be attached and retained for a remembraunce that hee is a Verdor. Know that all trees not bearing fruite, and theſe which beare fruite at any time in the whole yeere, and an Aſh if he be olde, ſhall remaine in the forreſt, and arable, becauſe our Lorde the king is in poſſeſſion. If any man ſhalbe found felling an Oke without the demeſne wood, and within the precinct, without the view or deliuerie of the Forreſter or verdor, he ſhalbe attached by iiii. pledges, and by the view of the verdor the oke ſhal be praized, and the names of the pledges ſhalbe written in the roll of the forreſters and verdors. If any Woodward ſhall ſee miſdoers within his wardſhip, or ſhall ſee a dead wild beaſt, he ſhal ſhew him to the chiefe Foſter or Verdor, and if he doe not, and the Foſter of our Lorde the king find ſuch a fault in his wood within the precinct, that wood ſhall bee taken into the kings handes by the Kings commandement, or of his Chiefe Iuſtice, and the Woodward is to bee attached by foure pledges. If any man ſhall haue a wood againſt the demeſne wood of our Lorde the king, it is lawfull for him after that yͤ demeſne hedges are agiſted, to haue in the time of pawnage, ſo many ſwine as the wood may ſuffer, by the view of the Foſter, Verdor, Regardor, Agiſtor, and other lawfull men, and this ſhall be done of the profit of the ſwine. Know that in the time of pawnage, when the agiſtment ought to bee made, the Foſters, Verdors & Agiſtors ought to craue the aſſent of the Iuſtices of our lord the kings Foreſt, and ſeeke their good will, and the agiſtment ſhall be made aſwell within the demeſne hedges and woods as without, and the agiſtment ſhalbe made according to their commandement, and tenour of their letters, which letters he ſhall haue before the Iuſtices of the foreſt in the next circuit. And it is commanded, that hereafter be taken for euery hogge as much as may be, to the vſe of our lord the king for pawnage, that is to ſay, one peny or ii.d. but of little pigges there ſhal bee no more payed then was before. If any man of another Countie, put, or willingly ſuffer his cattell to goe within the boundes of the Foreſt, the Foſter may reteine the cattel by ſureties and ſafe pledges, which if he cannot doe, by the teſtimony of the Verdors, he ſhall ſhew the Shirife of the Countie thereof, that he may make diſtreſſe vntill hee finde pledges. If the ſhirife doe it not, the Foſter ſhal ſhew the ſame to the Iuſtices. No mower ſhall bring with him a great Maſtiue, to driue away the Deere of our Lorde the king, but little dogges to looke to ſuch thinges as lie open. Of theſe which claime to haue priuiledges, as dogs without clawes, and greyhounds within the boundes of the foreſt, they ſhall haue nothing to doe without our Lorde the kings warrant, or his Iuſtices. A wood remaining in the hands of our lord the king by one yeere and one day, it is in the kinges pleaſure, except it be recouered by the iudgement of the Iuſtices. All the boundes of the whole foreſt are the kings. It is lawfull to the Abbot of the Borough of Saint Peter, to hunt, and to take hares & foxes within the boundes of the foreſt, and to haue vnlawed dogges, becauſe hee hath ſufficient warrant thereunto. When verdors haue taken an enqueſt, one ſhall ſet to his ſeale, and the other ſhall keepe the roll, and ſo from time to time vntill the comming of the Iuſtice: Then the firſt day he and all the Miniſters ſhall preſent the roll, or els they ſhalbe amerced, and mainpernors that day ſhall be proferred for the foreſt. A man attached for cutting of boughes, that plee appertaineth to the ſwanimote before the Steward. And a man attached for felling of an Oke in the demeſne of the king, or of any other tree, it belongeth to bee tried before the Iuſtice, and if he doe it to any man in the night time, hee ſhall be impriſoned. 5 Whereas Prelates, Earles, Barons, and other of our Realme, that claime to haue diuers Liberties, which to examine and iudge, the king hath prefixed a day to ſuch Prelates, Earles, Barons, and other: It is prouided, agreed, and ordeyned, that the Prelates, Earles, and Barons, and other, ſhall vſe ſuch maner of Liberties, after the forme of the Writ here following: Rex Vicecom̄ ſalutem. Cùm nuper in Parliamento noſtro apud Weſtmonaſterium per nos & Concilium noſtrum prouiſum ſit & proclamatum, quòd Prælati, Comites, Barones, & alij de noſtro Regno, qui diuerſas libertates per Chartas progenitorum noſtrorum Regum Angliæ habere clamant: Ad quas examinandas & iudicandas diem præfixerimus in eodem parliamento, libertatibus illis taliter vterentur, quod nihil ſibi per vſurpationem, ſeu occupationem accreſcerent, nec aliquid ſuper nos occuparent. Tibi præcipimus, quod omnes illos de Comitatu tuo, libertatibus ſuis quibus hucuſque rationabiliter vſi ſunt, vti & gaudere permittas, in forma prædicta, vſquè ad proximum aduentum noſtrum per comitem prædictum, vel vſquè aduentum Iuſticiariorum itinerantium ad omnia placita in Comitatu, vel donec aliud indè præceperimus: Saluo ſemper iure noſtro, cùm inde loqui voluerimus. Teſte &c. In like maner, and in the ſame forme writs ſhall be directed to Shirifes and other Bailifes for euery demaundant, and the forme ſhall be changed, after the diuerſitie of the Libertie which any man claimeth to haue, in this wiſe: Rex Vicecomit̄ ſalutem: Præcipimus tibi, quod per totam balliuam tuam, viz. tàm in Ciuitatibus, quàm in Burgis, & alijs villis mercatorijs, & alibi publicè proclamari facias, quod omnes illi qui aliquas libertates per Chartas progenitorum noſtrorum Regum Angliæ, vel alio modo habere clamant, ſint coram Iuſticiarijs noſtris ad primam Aſſiſam, ad oſtendendum cuiuſmodi libertates habere clamant, & quo warranto. Et tu ipſe ſis ibidem perſonaliter cum Balliuis & miniſtris, ad certificandum ipſos Iuſticiarios ſuper his & alijs negotijs illud tangentibus. This clauſe of Liberties that beginneth in this wiſe, Præcipimus tibi, quod publicè proclamari facias, &c. is put in the writ of common ſummons of the Iuſtices in Eire, and ſhall haue a premonition or warning before, by the ſpace of fortie dayes, as the common ſummons hath, ſo that if any partie that claimeth to haue libertie, be afore the king, it ſhall not be in default before any Iuſtices in their circuites: for the king of his ſpeciall grace hath graunted, that he will ſaue the partie harmeleſſe, as concerning the ordinance. And if the ſame partie bee impleaded vpon ſuch maner of Liberties, before one or two of the foreſaid Iuſtices, the ſame Iuſtices before whom the partie is impleaded, ſhal ſaue him harmleſſe before the other Iuſtices. And if the foreſaid partie be afore the king, ſo that he cannot be the ſame day afore the ſaid Iuſtices in their circuites, the king ſhall ſaue that partie harmeleſſe before the foreſaid Iuſtices in their circuites for the day, whereas he was before the king. And if he doe not come in the ſame day, then thoſe liberties ſhall be taken into the kings hands, in name of diſtreſſe, by the Shirife of the place, ſo that they ſhall not vſe them vntil they come to anſwere before the Iuſtices. And when they do come in by diſtreſſe, their liberties ſhall be repleuied (if they demaund them) in the which repleuin they ſhal anſwere immediatly after the forme of the writ aforeſaid. And if percaſe they will challenge and ſay that they are not bounden to anſwere in the originall writ, then if it may appeare by any meane, that they haue vſurped any liberties vpon the King, or his predeceſſors, of their owne head or preſumption, they ſhall be commaunded to anſwere incontinent without writ. And moreouer, they ſhall haue ſuch iudgement, as the Court of our ſoueraigne Lord the king will award. And if they will ſay further, that their aunceſtors dyed ſeiſed thereof, they ſhall be heard, and the trueth ſhall be inquired incontinent, and according to that, iudgement ſhall be giuen. And if it appeare that their aunceſtors dyed ſeiſed thereof, then the king ſhall haue a writ out of the Chauncerie in this forme, Rex Vicecomit̃ ſalutem: Summ̃ per bonos ſummoñ talem, quod ſit coram nobis apud talem locum in proximo aduentu noſtro in comitatu prædicto, vel coram Iuſticiarijs noſtris ad proximam Aſsiſam, cum in partes illas venerint, oſtenſurus quo warranto tenet viſum francipleg' in manerio ſuo de N. vel ſic: quo warranto tenet hundred' de S. in comitatu p̄dict', vel quo warranto clamat habere Thelonum pro ſe & hæredibus ſuis, per totum Regnum noſtrum. Et habeas ibi hoc breue. Teſte &c. And if they come in at the ſame day, they ſhall anſwere, and if they doe not come, nor be eſſoined before the king, and the king do tarie longer in the ſame ſhire, ſuch order ſhall be taken as is in the circuite of Iuſtices. And if the king depart from the ſame ſhire, they ſhall be adiourned vnto ſhort dayes, and ſhall haue reaſonable delayes, according to the diſcretion of the Iuſtices, as is vſed in perſonall actions. Alſo the Iuſtices errant in their circuit, ſhall do according to the foreſaid ordinance, and according as ſuch maner of plees ought to be ordered in the circuit. Concerning complaints made and to be made of the Kings Bailifes, and of other, it ſhall be done according to the ordinance made before thereupon, and according to the inqueſtes taken thereupon heretofore, and the clauſe ſubſcribed ſhall be put in a writ of common ſummons in the circuit of the Iuſtices aſſigned to common plees directed to the Shirife &c. and that ſhall be ſuch: Rex Vicecom̃ ſalutem. Præcipimus tibi, quod publicè proclamari facias, quod omnes conquerentes, ſeu conqueri volentes, tàm de Miniſtris & alijs Balliuis noſtris quibuſcunq;, quàm de miniſtris & Balliuis aliorum quorumcunq; & alijs, veniant coram Iuſticiarijs noſtris ad primam Aſſiſam, ad quaſcunq; quæremonias ſuas ibidem oſtendend', ad competentes emendas inde recipiendas, ſecundum legem & conſuetudinem Regni noſtri, & iuxta ordinationem per nos inde factam, & iuxta tenorem Statutorum, & iuxta articulos eiſdem Iuſticiarijs noſtris inde traditos, prout prædicti Iuſticiarij tibi ſcire faciant ex parte noſtra. ANno 34.H.8.cap.3. An Act was made for aſſize of Fuell, but that aſſize was altered by Anno 7.Edw.6,cap.7.which followeth here 2.

☞ 2 That there may be a conuenient aſſize of Fuell kept, both in reſpect of ſcarcitie of wood of late time happened, and in mittigation of the aſſize ſet downe in former lawes, and that the ſeller, maker, & marker of wood may be puniſhed aſwel as the buier, Be it &c. That no perſon or perſons ſhall ſuſtaine any loſſe, paine, or penaltie for buying or ſelling of any tall wood, billet or faggot, now cut and made, although the ſame be not of the aſſize contained in the ſaid act, (S. of 34.H.8. cap.3.before 1.) any thing contained in the ſame acte notwithſtanding. And that all tall wood, billet, faggot and coales to bee made and put to ſale in the Cities of London or Weſtminſter, or in the ſuburbes of the ſame, after the laſt day of September nexte comming, ſhall keepe the aſſizes hereafter expreſſed: that is to wit, That euery ſacke of coales containe foure buſhels of good & cleane coals. And that euery Tall ſhide conteine in length foure foot beſides the carfe. And euery tall ſhide named of one, to containe in greatneſſe within a foot of the middeſt, xvi.ynces about. And euery tall ſhide named of two, to containe in greatnes within a foot of the middeſt xxiii.ynches about. And euery tall ſhide named of three, to containe in greatnes within a foot of the middeſt xxviii.inches about. And euery tall ſhide named of foure, to containe in greatnes within a foote of the middeſt xxxiii. ynches about. And euery tall ſhide named of fiue, to containe in greatnes within a foote of the middeſt xxxviii. inches about. And euery billet to containe in length iii.foot and iiii.inches. And euery billet named a ſingle to containe vii.inches and a halfe about. And euery billet named to be a caſt, to containe x.inches about. And euery billet named of ii.caſt to cōtaine xiiii. inches about. And euery faggot bend to containe in length iii.foote. And the bond of euery ſuch faggot to bee of xxiiii. ynches about, beſides the knot: which aſſizes are little leſſe thē the aſſizes contained in the ſaid former act, and alſo are much greater then any aſſize that now is, or of long time hath bin commonly kept. And bee it further enacted, that it ſhalbe lawful from henceforth for euery Owner without danger of any forfaiture to make billets of two caſts. And that all billets of two caſts, from henceforth to be made and put to ſale, ſhalbe of the aſſize herein compriſed or more, & ſhalbe marked onely within ſix inches of the middeſt thereof. And that euery billet of one caſt from henceforth to bee made & put to ſale, ſhalbe onely marked within iiii.inches of the ende thereof, vpon paine that euery marker and euery ſeller that ſhall make any ſuch fuell or coales, & put the ſame to ſale, to forfait for euery ſhide of tall wood, billet, faggot, or ſacke of coales, from henceforth put to ſale lacking of the aſſize aforeſaid iii.s.iiii.d. And that this preſent ſtatute onely, and no other ſtatute of aſſize of fuell or coales, ſhall from henceforth ſtand in force ne take place. And forasmuch as by the greedy appetite and couetouſnes of diuers perſons, fuel, coales and wood, runneth many time through foure or fiue ſeuerall handes or moe, before it commeth to the handes of them that for their neceſſitie doe burne or retaile the ſame: Bee it further enacted, that from the firſt day of May next comming, no perſon or perſons ſhal buy any ſuch wood, coals, or fuel, but onely ſuch as wil burne and conſume the ſame, or ſuch perſons as ſhal ſell the ſame againe by retaile, to ſuch as ſhall burne or conſume the ſame for their own occupying, without fraud or couin, or wharfingers or bargemen, vpon paine to forfait the treble value of all ſuch wood, coals and fuel, as ſhalbe otherwiſe bought for any lucre or gaine. And that no perſon or perſons ſhall alter any marke or aſſize of any of the ſaid fuel marked or aſſized, acording to this ſtatute, in paine of like forfaiture, as is aforeſaid: The one halfe of all which forfaitures herein contained, ſhal be to the king our ſoueraigne Lord, and the other halfe to him or thē that will ſue for the ſame, by action of debt, bill, plaint or information, in any the kings courts of record, wherein &c. Prouided alwayes and be it &c. that no perſon or perſons ſhal yeeld ne forfait any penaltie herein contained, vnleſſe action or ſuit be commenced for the ſame within one whole yeere next after the offence thereof committed or done. And that if any cutter or marker as is aforeſaid, or other that ſhall forfaite any ſummes herein contained, ſhall not be able to yeeld ſuch forfaiture or ſums as is aforeſaid: That then ſuch perſon thereof conuicted by witneſſes, or otherwiſe, to be ſet on the pillorie in the nexte Market Towne to the place where hee ſhall ſo offend, by a Iuſtice of the Peace, or any other the Kinges Officers, at a xi.of the clocke vpon the Market day, with a billet or faggot bounden to ſome part of his bodie, and ſo to be diſcharged of the ſaid forfaiture. Prouided alſo and be it enacted, that it ſhalbe lawful to euery perſon or perſons, to

Anno 7. Edw. 6. cap. 7.

3 So much of the ſaide ſtatute Anno 7. Edw. 6. cap. 7. as concerneth the forfaiture of iii.s.iiii.d. for euery ſhide of Talwood Billet or Faggot lacking the aſſiſe conteyned therein, is repealed by 43. Eliz. cap. 14. And yet the Aſſiſe for the ſaide Talwood, Billet and Faggots ſhal ſtill continue in force, not onely for London and Weſtminſter, but alſo in all other Cities, Boroughs and Townes corporate of this Realme, where ſuch Talewood, Billet & Faggots are accuſtomed to be ſolde. And be it further enacted, That if any perſon or perſons ſhal after the firſt day of May next now enſuing, bring any Tallewood, Billet or Faggot to any Citie, Borough or Towne corporate within this realme, there to be ſold, or being brought, ſhall put the ſame to ſale, neither beeing of the aſſize mentioned in the ſaide Statute made in the ſeuenth yeere of king Edward the ſixt, or agreeing with the meaſures hereafter in this act limitted: That then vpon information thereof giuen to the maior, bailife, or other head officer of the ſaid Citie, Borough or Towne corporate, they ſhall haue power and authoritie to call before them ſixe good and lawfull men of the ſaid citie, borough or towne corporate, and ſhall ſweare them vpon their corporal oathes, truely to enquire and preſent, whether all or any part of the ſaide Tallewood, Billet or Faggots be of good & ſufficient aſſize according to the ſaid Statute, & the limitation of aſſize herein conteined, or not. And if they ſhal preſent vpon their oathes, that any of the ſame Tallewood, Billets or Faggots bee not of ſuch good and ſufficient aſſize as aboueſaid: That then the ſaid Maior, Bayliffes and other head Officers of the ſayde Cities, Boroughs and Townes corporate, by force of this Acte vpon their preſentment, ſhall and may take ſuch of the ſame Tallewood, Billet and Faggots, as bee falſe ſized, as forfeited, and ſhall deliuer the ſame vnto ſome Ouerſeers for the poore in the ſaid Cities, Boroughs, and townes corporate, to be by them giuen & diſtributed to the poore there, according to their diſcretions from time to time, as often as ſuch offences ſhall be preſented, in maner and forme aboueſaid. And whereas in the ſaid former ſtatute it was enacted and limitted, that euery Talleſhide ſhall conteine in length foure foote beſides the carffe, And euery Talleſhide named one, ſhould conteine in greatneſſe within one foote of the middeſt, ſixteene inches about, and euery Talleſhide named of two, to conteine in greatneſſe within a foot of the middeſt, twentie and three inches about, And euery Talleſhide named of three, to conteine in greatnes within one foot to the middeſt, twenty & eight inches about, And euery Talleſhide named of foure, to conteine in greatnes within one foot of the middeſt, thirtie three ynches about, And euery talleſhide named of fiue, to conteine in greatneſſe within one foote of the middeſt, thirtie eight ynches about, And euery Billet to conteine in length, three foot foure inches, And euery Billet named a ſingle, to conteine ſeuen inches and a halfe about, And euery Billet named to be a Caſt, to conteine ten inches about, And euery Billet named of two Caſt, to conteine fourteene inches about, And euery Faggot bend or ſticke, to conteine in length three foot, And the Bond of euery ſuch Faggot to bee of foure and twentie inches about, beſides the knot. In which act it was further enacted, that all Billets of two Caſt ſhould bee marked within ſixe ynches of the middeſt thereof, and euery Billet of one Caſt, to be marked onely within foure inches of the end thereof, as in the ſaid act of Parliament amongſt diuers other clauſes, articles and prouiſions doth & may appeare. And whereas diuers euill diſpoſed perſons euading from the true intent, good meaning and purpoſe of the ſaid acte of Parliament, haue cunningly deuiſed by cleauing of Wood made, or to bee marked for Tallewood or Billet, & by ſtopping of Faggots with ſhort ſtickes about the middeſt thereof, ſo to deceiue and abuſe the ſubiects of this Realme, as many times they ſell the one halfe or little more for the whole, and yet ſo cunningly caried, that by yͤ ſtrickt letter of the ſaid ſtatute they cannot be comptrolled, by reaſon the ſaid ſtatute vſeth onely the worde (About) and wanteth the worde (Round.) And whereas by the true intent of the ſaid ſtatute, euery Bend of faggot ſhould be three foot, and the bond beſides the knot foure and twentie inches, the ſaid euill diſpoſed people do not only make the ſaid bends or faggot ſticks much ſhorter, but if any chance to be of ſufficient length, then onely one or two of thoſe ſhall be put in a faggot, and the Bond filled vp with ſhort ſtickes or bendes ſcarce one foot long, to the great damage and deceipt of her Maieſties ſubiects buying the ſame. For auoyding of all which deceits for euer hereafter, and to auoid all ſcruple, ambiguitie, or doubt hereafter to bee made of the ſaid ſtatute, or the true meaning thereof, And for that it muſt needes be permitted to cleaue great trees into talle wood or billet, for conueniencie of vſe: Be it therefore (for explanation of the true intent of the ſaide ſtatute) enacted by authoritie of this preſent Parliament, That from & after the firſt day of May now next comming, euery tall ſhide marked of one, being round bodied, ſhall conteine ſixteene inches of aſſize in compaſſe: beeing of halfe round, nineteene inches of aſſize about: beeing quarter cleft, eighteene inches and a halfe of aſſize about. And that euery Tall ſhide marked two, being round bodied, ſhall conteine in compaſſe three and twenty inches of aſſize about: beeing halfe round ſeuen and twenty inches of aſſize about: being of quarter cleft, ſixe and twentie inches of aſſize about. And euery Tal ſhide marked three, ſhal conteine in compaſſe (being round) eight and twentie inches of aſſize: being halfe round, to conteine in compaſſe three and thirtie inches of aſſize: being of quarter cleft, two and thirtie inches of aſſize about. And euery Tall ſhide marked foure, to conteine in compaſſe (being round) three & thirtie inches of aſſize: being halfe round, nine and thirtie inches of aſſize about: being of quarter cleft, eight and thirtie inches of aſſize about. And euery Tall ſhide marked fiue, ſhall conteine in compaſſe being round, eight and thirtie inches of aſſize about: being halfe round, foure and forty inches of aſſize about: and being quarter cleft, three and forty inches of aſſize about. All which to bee meaſured about within ſixe inches of the middeſt thereof, & to conteine the length limitted by the ſaid ſtatute. And in all other formes or maner of cleauing of wood to be hereafter marked and ſold for Talwood, which will not admit the former formes or manner of cleauing, nor any of theſe, to obſerue the letter of the ſaid ſtatute of An.vij. Edward.vj.cap.vij. And for the better vnderſtanding of the intent of this Statute, Bee it enacted by the &c. That in euery one of theſe formes, the ſurpluſage of compaſſe that ſhall happen betweene any two nexte meaſures, being aboue the one, & vnder the other in euery kind, ſhalbe deemed, allowed, and taken to be for and to the benefite of the buyer, and not otherwiſe to be computable. And bee it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſafd, that euery billet named a ſingle, ſhall contain in compaſſe being round bodied, ſeuen inches and a halfe of aſſize, and no ſingles to be made or marked out of cleft wood. And euery billet marked one, commonly called a Caſt, to conteine in compaſſe about, eleuen inches of aſſize, being round, & being halfe round to conteine in compaſſe thirteene inches of aſſize about, and beeing quarter cleft to conteine in compaſſe about twelue inches and an halfe: And euery billet marked two, commonly called two Caſt, to conteine in compaſſe about, being round, ſixteene inches of aſſize: and being halfe round, to contein in compaſſe about, nineteene inches of aſſize: and being of quarter cleft, to conteine in compaſſe about, eighteene inches and an halfe of aſſize: And in all other formes or maner of cleauing of billet to be hereafter marked & ſold for billets, which will not admit the former formes or maner of cleauing, nor any of them, And touching the length of all the ſaid billet to obſerue the letter of the ſaid ſtatute of An.7.Edw.6.cap.7. And be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that al faggots hereafter to be made and put to ſale, ſhall conteine in compaſſe beſides the knot of the bond foure and twenty inches of aſſize, & euery faggot ſticke or bend within the ſaid bond to conteine in length full iii. foot of aſſize or more, excepting only one ſtick or bend to be of one foot long, to ſtop or harden the binding thereof. And that the benefices, prebends, and other eccleſiaſticall promotions and dignities whatſoeuer, of euery ſpirituall and ecleſiaſticall perſon ſo offending, ſhalbe vtterly void to all intents and purpoſes, as though the Incumbent were dead, and that the Patrons and Donors of euery ſuch benefice, prebend, ſpirituall promotion and dignitie, ſhall and may lawfully preſent to the ſame, or giue the ſame, as if the incumbent were dead. And foraſmuch as diuers of the ſaid perſons, after they haue determined to paſſe out of this realme, or yͤ realme of Ireland, or the dominions of any of the ſame, without licence, or hauing licence, determine not to return into the ſame according to their licence : do moſt cōmonly by couin and fraud, make, cauſe, or ſuffer to bee made and had, recoueries, eſtates, graunts, leaſes, & other conueiances of their manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments : And alſo do by couin and fraud make gifts and grants, and other deuiſes of their goods & cattels to the intent and vpon priuy confidence, that the profites of the ſame may be imployed and beſtowed, in ſuch forme and to ſuch ſecret purpoſes and vſes, as they do or ſhal limit & appoint, and be agreeed vpon : Be it therefore &c. that all and euery ſuch eſtates, grants, leaſes, gifts, deuiſes, and conueyances whatſoeuer, and euery of them, being found by office to bee made and had by fraud or couin, as is aforeſaid, ſhall be as touching ſuch intereſt, as by this act is appointed to our ſoueraigne ladie the Queenes highnes now being, her heires & ſucceſſors, as is aforeſaid, and as againſt the ſame our ſoueraigne Lady the Q. for and concerning the ſame intereſt vtterly voide and of none effect or validity in the law. 5 Becauſe the time of the continuance of the Statute (2.and 3.Phil. and Mar.before 4.) is now expired, and yet the ſayd Statute is very beneficiall, and moſt neceſſary to bee continued for the eaſe and common wealth of this land: Be it enacted &c. That the ſayd ſtatute, and euery article and branch of the ſame, ſhall from henceforth be, ſtand, and continue in full force, effect, and ſtrength, for & during the terme of twenty yeers next following, from and after the beginning of this preſent Parliament, and after the expiration of the ſaid twenty yeres, to the ende of the Parliament then next after the end of the ſayd twenty yeres, to be holden and kept. And foraſmuch as the ſayd Satute made in the ſecond and third yeres of king Philip and Q. Mary, in diuers parts of this realm, ſerueth not to ſo good purpoſe aud effect, as it may be made, for that ſuch ſubſtance and matter as is moſt fit and conuenient for the reparation of the ſayd high wayes, cannot bee lawfully had, and fetched and taken out of the ſeuerall grounds and ſoile therunto nigh or adioyning, being no great loſſe or detriment to the owners of the ſame ſeuerall grounds and ſoyle, whereby the amendement of the ſayde waies is little increaſed, or els of very ſmal & ſlender continuance, to the great and continuall charge of the poore people inhabiting there abouts. For reformation whereof, and that the reparations of the ſayds high wayes may hereafter in good due maner, wel and ſufficiently be made: Be it &c. that from henceforth it ſhall and may be lawfull to all and ſinguler Surperuiſor and Superuiſors, and orderers of the works for the time being, for the amendement of the ſaide high wayes, thereunto elected and appointed, according to the Statute made in the ſecond and third yere of king Philip and Queene Mary (before 4.) for the better reparation and amendment of the high wayes within their ſeueral Pariſhes and limits where they ſhall bee ſo made Superuiſors, (if it ſhall bee ſo to them thought neceſſarie) to take and cary away of the rubbiſh or ſmalleſt broken ſtones of any quarrie or quarries, lying or being within the Pariſh where they ſhall be Superuiſors without licence, controlment or impeachmēt of the owners or owner, ſo much as by their diſcretions ſhall be deemed and iudged neceſſary to the amendment of the ſayd wayes. And that for default of any quarrie or quarries, not being within their ſayd Pariſh or limits, or in default of rubbiſh not to be found in any ſuch quarrie or quarries, it ſhall and may be lawfull to euery ſuch Superuiſor or Superuiſors, for the vſe aforeſaid, in the ſeuerall grounds of any perſon or perſons, being within the pariſh and limits where they ſhall be Superuiſors, and nigh adioyning to the way or wayes wherin ſuch reparations ſhall be thought neceſſarie to be made, & wherein grauell, ſand or ſinder is like to be found, to digge or cauſe to be digged for grauell, ſand, or ſinder, and likewiſe to gather ſtones, lying vppon any lands or grounds within the Pariſh, and meete to be vſed to ſuch ſeruice and purpoſe, and thereof to take and cary away ſo much, as by diſcretion of the ſaide Superuiſors ſhal be thought neceſſary to be imployed in the amendment of the ſayde high wayes: Prouided alwayes, that it ſhal not be lawfull to any ſuch Superuiſor or Superuiſors by vertue of this Acte, to cauſe any rubbiſh to bee digged out any Quarrie or Quarries, but onely ſhall extend to ſuch rubbiſh as ſhall bee found there ready digged by the owner or owners of the ſaide Quarrie or Quarries, or otherwiſe, by his or their licence and commandement: nor ſhall not extend to giue authoritie to any Superuiror or Superuiſors to digge, or cauſe to bee digged any grauell, ſand or ſinder in the houſe, Garden, Orchard or Meddow, of any perſon or perſons: nor that it ſhall bee lawfull by this act to any ſuch Superuiſor or Superuiſors, to cauſe any more pits to bee digged for grauell in any ſeuerall and incloſed ground then one onely, and that the ſame pit or hole ſo digged for grauell, as is aforeſayde, ſhall not by any way be in bredth or length aboue x. yards at the moſt. And that euery ſuch Superuiſor as ſhal cauſe any ſuch pit to be made and digged for grauell, ſand or ſinder, as is aforeſayd, ſhall within one Moneth next after any ſuch digging or pit made, cauſe the ſame to be filled and ſtopped vp with earth, at the coſtes and charges of the Pariſhioners, vpon paine to forfeit to the owner and owners of ỹ ſoyle, wherein any ſuch pit ſhalbe made and digged, for euery default fiue Markes, to bee recouered by action of debt, as in other like caſes of debt hath been accuſtomed. And forasmuch as the high wayes in ſundry places of this Realme be full of continuall Springs and water courſes, by continuall increaſe and ſinking whereof into the ground, the ſayd wayes are not onely very deepe and dangerous, but alſo for the moſt part impoſſible to bee amended and repaired in any good and ſufficient manner, without ſome further remedie prouided for the ſame: Be it therefore enacted, that from henceforth euery ſuch Superuiſor and Superuiſors as is aforeſaid, ſhall by force of this act, within the Pariſh or limits where hee or they ſhall bee Superuiſors, haue full power and authoritie to turne any ſuch water courſe, or Spring of water, being in any of the ſayd high wayes, into any ditch or ditches, of the ſeueral ground or ſoile of any perſon or perſons whatſoeuer, next adioyning to the ſayd wayes in ſuch maner and forme, as by the diſcretions of the ſayde Superuiſors ſhould be thought meeteſt and moſt conuenient. And bee it further enacted &c. that the hayes, fences, ditches or hedges next adioyning on either ſide to any high or common fairing way, ſhall from time to time bee diked, ſcoured, repaired and kept low, and all trees and buſhes growing in the high wayes, cutte downe by the Owner or owners of the ground or ſoile which ſhall bee incloſed with the ſaid hayes, fences, dikes or hedges, aforeſaid, where by the ſaide wayes may bee open, and the people haue more ready and eaſie paſſage in the ſame. And be it enacted that from henceforth there ſhall bee yerely ſixe dayes during the time and force of this ſtatute, obſerued, vſed and imployed in reparation and amendement of the ſaid high wayes, in like manner and forme, as the ſaide foure dayes were limited and appointed to bee obſerued and kept by the ſayd ſtatute made in the ſaid ſecond and third yeres of King Philip and Queene Marie. And be it further enacted by the aucthoritie aforeſaide, that from henceforth all and ſinguler ſuch Superuiſor or Superuiſors for the time being within one moneth next after default or offence, made, done, or committed by any perſon or perſons, contrary to the prouiſion, purport, and true meaning of the ſaide Statute made in the ſecond and third yeres of King Philip and Queene Mary, or contrary to the prouiſion, purport and true meaning of this preſent act, ſhall preſent euery ſuch default or offence to the next Iuſtice of peace for the time being, vppon paine to forfeite for euery ſuch default or offence in ſuch ſort not by them preſented fortie ſhillings. And that euery ſuch Iuſtice of peace to whom any ſuch default or offence ſhall be preſented as is aforeſayd, ſhall certifie the ſame preſentment ſo to him made at the next General Seſſions within the ſaid countie then next after to be holden, vppon paine to forfeit for not certifying of euery ſuch preſentment of euery ſuch default or offence as is aforeſayd fiue pound. And that the Iuſtices of peace of euery Countie, where the ſaid defaults or offences ſhall bee committed, ſhall immediatly haue aucthoritie to inquire of any ſuch default or offence committed within the limits of their Commiſſion, at euery their Quarter Seſſions, and to aſſeſſe ſuch fines for the ſame, as they or two of them, whereof one to be of the Quorum ſhall thinke meet. And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that euery Iuſtice of peace ſhall haue authoritie by this ſtatute vppon his own proper knowledge in the open generall Seſſions to make preſentment of any high way, not wel & ſufficiently repaired and amended, or of any other default or offence committed or ☞ 6 Where in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter in the ſecond and third yeres of the reignes of king Philip and Queene Marie (before 4.) an act was made and ordeined for the amending and repairing of the high wayes. And whereas there is one other acte made in the fift yeere of our Soueraigne Lady the Queene that now is (before 5.) for the better amendement of the high wayes, wherein ſome doubts and defects haue beene. For explanation whereof, and better prouiſion hereafter to bee made for amendement of high wayes: Bee it explaned and enacted &c. That euery perſon or perſons (except ſuch as ſhall dwell in the Citie of London) that ſhall bee aſſeſſed to the payment of any Subſide to her Maieſtie to fiue pounds in goods, or fortie ſhillings in land or aboue, during all ſuch time as hee ſhall ſtand ſo aſſeſſed and not altered, and beeing none of the parties chargeable for the amendement of High Wayes, by any former Law, but as a cottager, ſhall finde two able men yeerely to labor in the High wayes, at ſuch dayes and times, as by the ſaid ſeuerall Statutes are limited and appointed. And euery other that hereafter ſhall occupie a Plough land in tillage or paſture, lying and beeing in ſeuerall Pariſhes, ſhall bee chargeable to the making of the wayes within the Pariſh where hee dwelleth, as farre foorth and in ſuch manner and forme, as any perſon hauing a Plough land in any one Pariſh, is or ought to bee chargeable, by reaſon of the ſaide former Statutes, or either of them. And that euery perſon and perſons occupying and keeping in his or their handes or poſſeſſion, ſeuerall or diuers Plough landes, as aforeſaide in ſeuerall or diuers Townes, ſhall bee charged to finde in eche Towne or Pariſh (where the Plough landes being in his occupying doe lye) one Cart, Waine, Tumbrell dung pot, or Court ſleads, carres, or dragges, furniſhed for the amendement and repayring of the High wayes within the ſeuerall Pariſhes where the ſaid Plough lands doe lye, in ſuch manner and forme, as if hee or they were a Pariſhioner dwelling within the Pariſhes where the ſame ſeuerall Plough landes doe lie. And bee it further enacted by the aucthoritie aforeſaide, that all and euery perſon and perſons, that ſhall not repaire, ditch, or ſcoure any hayes, fences, ditches or hedges, adioyning to any High way, or common fairing way, or ſhall not cutte downe or kerpe low all Trees and buſhes growing in or next adioyning to any the ſaid wayes, according to the true intent and meaning of the aboue recited Acte, made in the fift yeere of the Queenes Maieſties reigne that now is, for euery offence committed therein contrary to the true intent thereof, ſhall forfeit and loſe for euery default x.s. And that all and euery perſon and perſons, that ſhall occupy any lands adioyning, to the ſayde groundes, ſo adioyning to any ſuch High way, or common fairing way, where any ditching or ſcouring ſhould or ought to be as is aforeſaide, ſhall from time to time, as need ſhall require, ditch and ſcoure in his and their ground ſo adioyning, whereby the water conueyed from the ſaide High way, or common fairing way, ouer the ground next adioyning, may haue paſſage ouer the ſaid ground ſo next adioyning to the ground, vpon pain of forfeiture for euery time ſo offending or euery rod not ſo ditched and ſcoured xii.d.

And for the better keeping of the high waies paſſable for her Maieſties people: Bee it enacted &c. That no perſon or perſons hauing any ground by leaſe or otherwiſe, adioyning to any high way, or common fairing way, leading to any market towne, ſhal caſt or ſcowre any ditch, and throwe or lay the ſoile thereof into the high way, and ſuffer it to lie there by the ſpace of ſixe moneths, to the annoyance of the ſayde high way, or common fairing way, vpon paine of forfaiture for euery loade of ſoile ſo caſt into the high way, or common fairing way, in ditching or ſcowring twelue pence. And where any heretofore haue bene ſo caſt into the high way, or common fairing way, that there is a banke betweene the ſaid way and the ditch, it ſhall bee lawfull for the Surueyors and workemen, by the Lawes and Statutes of this Realme, appointed for the amendment of the ſaide wayes, to make ſlewces or other deuices by their diſcretions, to conuey the water out of the ſaid way into the ditch: any law, right, intereſt, cuſtome or vſage to the contrary notwithſtanding. And that all and euery penaltie, ſumme or ſummes of money, forfeited for any cauſe within this Statute, ſhall be leuied in euery Pariſh by the Surueyors of the wayes within that Pariſh for the time being, by diſtreſſe and ſale of diſtreſſe, in manner and forme, as fines or amerciaments in Leetes haue bene vſed. And be it further enacted, by the authoritie aforeſaide, that all and euery Iuſtices of Aſſiſes, Iuſtices of Oyer and terminer, Iuſtices of the Peace in their Seſſions, and Stewardes of Leetes and Lawedayes, in their Leetes and Lawedayes, ſhall heare and determine all and euery offence, matter and cauſe, that ſhall grow, come, or riſe by reaſon of this eſtatute. And where the Ferrie or paſſage called the kinges Ferrie within the Iſle of Sheppey in the Countie of Kent, before the making of the Statute of High wayes, was vſually repaired and mainteined time out of memorie of man, at the charges of all the inhabitants and lande occupiers within the whole Iſle, by taxation and ſeſſement, at one Court and Lawday, time out of minde, yeerely holden on the Monday next after the feaſt of Pentecoſt, at Kinſborow within the ſaide Iſle, in the name of the Queenes Maieſtie and her Progenitours, onely for the maintenance of the ſame Ferrie: Bee it therefore enacted, that the ſaide Court ſhall bee duely kept, in ſuch manner and forme, as hath beene heretofore accuſtomed, and that it ſhall and may be lawfull to and for the Iurie impanelled and ſworne at the ſame Court, for the time beeing, by their diſcretions reaſonably to aſſeſſe and taxe themſelues and all other the inhabitants and land occupiers of the ſayde Iſle indifferently, according to the rate of the lande in euery mans occupying, towards the maintenance of the ſaide Ferrie and paſſage, and the wayes belonging and leading to the ſame, ſo as no acre of freſh marſh and vpland bee taxed aboue the rate of a penie in one yeere, nor of euery tenne acres of ſalt marſh aboue the rate of a penie in one yeere. And that all and euery thing, profite, benefite, and commoditie, which heretofore hath bene giuen by any perſon or perſons whatſoeuer, towards the maintenance of the ſaid paſſage or Ferrie, ſhall be had and leuied to the maintenance of the ſayde Paſſage or Ferrie. And that the Ferrie Warden for the time beeing, ſhall haue full power and authoritie to leuie, recouer and receiue the ſame, and the taxes and aſſeſſements of euery perſon and perſons by way of diſtreſſe, vpon the eſtreates made out by the Steward of the ſayde Court, as all Amerciaments are vſed to bee leuied that are extreated out of other the Queenes Maieſties Leetes and Lawedayes, And that the ſayde Ferrie Warden, ſhall beſtowe the money ſo leuied, vpon the repairing and maintenance of the ſaide Ferrie, Paſſage and Wayes, and thereof ſhall giue account, as they haue bene accuſtomed, to the Steward of the ſayde Court and homage, there to bee ſworne at the next Lawday following, and all arrerages in his handes remaining, ſhall deliuer ouer to the next Ferrie Warden, on paine to forfeit the double of the ſaide arrerages, to bee leuied as other paines and amerciamentes in the Courte aforeſaide aſſeſſed, and to bee imployed to the maintenance of the ſayde Paſſage or Ferrie. 7 Whereas in the Parliament holden in the xviii. yeere of the Queenes Maieſties reigne that now is, there was one very neceſſarie and profitable lawe then made, for the repairing and mainteining of the Ferrie and paſſage called the kinges Ferrie within the Iſle of Sheppey in the Countie of Kent, and for the vſuall high way leading from the Market Towne called Middleton to the ſaid Ferrie: In and by which Act or Statute for the repairing and amending of the ſaide high way leading from Middleton to the ſaid Ferrie being in great decay, it is amongſt other thinges enacted, that it ſhould be lawful from thenceforth yeerely during the ſpace of tenne yeeres, for three Iuſtices of the peace, whereof one to be of the Quorum next inhabiting to the ſaide Towne of Middleton, within the ſaid Countie of Kent, reaſonably to aſſeſſe and taxe all and euery lande occupiers dwelling out of the ſaide Iſle, and within foure miles diſtant from the ſayde Ferrie, as to their diſcretions ſhould ſeeme conuenient, not exceeding the ſumme of one penie vpon euerie acre of freſh marſh and vpland in one yere, & vpon ten euery acres of ſalt marſh one penie in one yeere. And forasmuch as vpon the letter of the ſame branch ſome doubt and queſtion hath riſen, whether the ſaid Iuſtices could ſeſſe any but ſuch as bee land occupiers and dwelling out of the ſaid Iſle, and within foure miles diſtant of the ſaide Ferrie: and that thereby the taxations by them to bee made by the letter of the ſaide law, will not ſuffice to repaire the ſaide decayed wayes, for that the landes and groundes lying out of the ſaid Iſle, and within foure miles diſtant from the ſaid Ferrie, are for the moſt part occupied by ſuch perſons as bee inhabiting without the compaſſe of the ſaide iiii. miles, by reaſon whereof the ſaid high waies remaine ſtill vnrepaired and not amended, and are growen into further decay then at the time of the making of the ſayde ſtatute they were, to the great danger and annoyance of the Queenes Maieſties ſubiects, paſſing by and thorowe the ſame: For the better explanation of the ſaid Statute, and for the redreſſe of the ſaide wayes: Be it nowe enacted by the Queene our Soueraigne Ladie, the Lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that yeerely from henceforth for euer, betweene the feaſt of Eaſter and the feaſt of Penticoſt, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for ſixe, fiue, foure or three Iuſtices of the Peace, whereof one to bee of the Quorum, inhabiting within eight miles of the ſaid towne of Middleton within the ſaide Countie of Kent, to aſſeſſe and taxe vpon all and euery the landes and groundes lying and being without the ſaid Iſle, and within foure miles diſtant from the ſaid ferrie, ſuch aſſeſſements and taxations, for, and towards the repairing and amending of the ſaide high way, as to them ſhall ſeeme reaſonable, notwithſtanding that the owners or occupiers of the ſame lands or grounds bee dwelling without the compaſſe of the ſaide foure miles, ſo that the ſame aſſeſſements and taxations exceede not aboue one penie for euery acre of freſh marſh and vpland for one yeere, and not aboue one penie for euery ten acres of ſalt marſh for one yere: The ſaid former act or any article, branch, or thing therein contained to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding. And that the ſayd taxations and aſſeſſements, ſhalbe leuied and imployed for and towards the repairing af the ſaid high way, by ſuch perſon and perſons dwelling out of the ſaide Iſle, within foure miles of the ſaid ferrie, as by the Iuſtices that ſhall aſſeſſe and taxe the ſame, ſhal be limitted and appointed, and the ſame perſon and perſons ſo to be appointed, to haue like power & authoritie for the leuying thereof by diſtres, in ſuch maner & forme, as is limitted to yͤ ſaid ferry wardē, by yͤ ſaid recited ſtatute, for the leuying and gathering of aſſeſſements within the ſaid Iſle. And the ſaid perſon and perſons ſo to bee appointed to account and to deliuer the arrerages thereof (if any happen to be) to the ſaide Iuſtices, at ſuch time and place, as by them ſhall be aphointed. An.27. Eliz.cap.26.

8 Whereas one Act of Parliament made in the xxvii.yeere of the reigne of our Soueraigne Lady the Queenes Maieſtie that now is, in one act then made, intituled, An act for preſeruation of Timber, in the Wildes of the Counties of Suſſex, Surrey and Kent, and for the amendment of high wayes decayed by carriage to and from Iron milles there, ſome remedie is prouided for the impayring and ſpoiling of high wayes, by the carriage of Coales, Mine & Iron, to and from the Iron works within ſome part of the ſaid Counties of Surrey and Kent, and prouiſion for the amending of high wayes decaied in the Countie of Suſſex, by the ſaid meanes is left out, and alſo the ſaid acte hath not taken the ſame good effect for the amendment of high waies within the ſaide Counties of Surrey & Kent as hath bene expected: Be it therefore enacted by our Soueraigne Lady the Queenes Maieſtie, the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons of this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that ſo much of the ſaid Act of Parliament, made in the xxvii. yeere of the Q. prorogatiues, vntill the xv. day of Ianuarie, in the xxiii. yeere of the reigne of the ſaid late King, amongſt other things (which ſee before in Felonie 13.) there was one Act or Statute made, whereby the ſelling, exchaunging, or deliuerie of any horſes, geldinges or mares into Scotland, by any Engliſhman ſhould be felonie, which Act or Statute is intituled: An act that no Engliſhman ſhould ſell, exchaunge, or deliuer to be conueyed into Scotland, any horſe, gelding or mare without the Kinges licence, as by the ſame Act and Statute more at large doth and may appeare. And although the ſame eſtatute was a very good and neceſſarie law for the maintenance of the ſtrength of this realme, and for the due preſeruation of the ſtate of the ſame, yet the ſaid Statute by certaine actes of repeale, made aſwel in the time of the late king Edward the vi. as alſo in the time of Queene Mary, was by certaine generall wordes repealed and made voide, by reaſon whereof diuers wicked and euill diſpoſed perſons, haue of late time for their own priuate gaine, conueyed diuers horſes, geldings, and mares out of this Realme into Scotland, to the great ſtrength and boldening of the Scottiſh, and much to the detriment and hinderance of this realme: Wherefore be it enacted, &c. that the ſaid act and ſtatute made in the ſaid 23. yeere of the reigne of the ſaid late king H. the 8. and all & euery branch, ſentence, articles, words, matters, and clauſes therein conteined, ſhall from the firſt day of May next comming, ſtand, remaine, and continue in full force and ſtrength, to all intents and purpoſes, as fully and as wholly as euer the ſame was at any time heretofore: any Act or Statute of repeale, or any other matter or cauſe whatſoeuer to the contrarie notwithſtanding. ☞ 10 Where in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter in the firſt yeere of the reigne of the late king E. the vi. brother to our Soueraigne Lady the Queenes Maieſtie that now is, amongſt diuers other Statutes, there was one act and Statute made againſt the carrying and conueying of any horſes, geldings or mares out of this Realme, (which ſee here before 8.) In which Acte amongſt other things there is one Prouiſo or branch conteining theſe wordes hereafter following: that is to ſay. Prouided alwayes, that it ſhall bee lawfull to euery of the kings ſubiects, that ſhall paſſe ouer beyond the Sea, to ſhip and carrie with them horſes & geldings for their onely occupation in their iournies, and not to the intent to ſell the ſame beyond the Sea, and that intent to bee iudged by the oath of him or them that ſo will carrie ouer any horſe or gelding, which oath ſhall be taken before the Cuſtomer or Searcher, or their deputies of euery ſuch port where the ſame horſe or gelding ſhall be ſhipped, before the ſhipping thereof, as by the ſame Acte and Prouiſo it doeth and may appeare. And be it &c. that all the ſaid Prouiſo and branch before rehearſed, mentioned and contained within the ſaid act and Statute, and euery article and ſentence contained within the ſaid Prouiſo, ſhall from henceforth bee repealed, made voide and of none effect, and that all the reſidue of the ſaid Act and Statute, ſhall ſtand, remaine, and be in full ſtrength: any thing herein ſpecified to the contrary notwithſtanding. And foraſmuch alſo as ſome perchance haue erected and builded vp new houſes in ſome other places vpon the ſame landes lying to the ſaid houſes, or vpon ſome other land neere thereunto, in lieu and place of the houſe decayed which are as auaileable to the Common wealth, as the new reedifying of the decayed houſes in the old places ſhould be, in which caſes equitie requireth they ſhould not bee puniſhed for the ſaid decay. And foraſmuch as it is like to be that ſome ground conuerted from tillage into paſture, is diuided into diuers ſmall parcels remayning and being in diuers and ſeuerall mens hands, ſo that any one part will not be ſufficient to keepe any plough vpon: and for that ſome grounds haue bin tilled for deſtroying of moſſe, buſhes, broomes, furzes, heath, and not only to be continued in tillage and ſuch like: and that alſo ſome demeanes in the abſence of the owners haue beene deuided to ſundry occupiers, who haue tilled the ſame not being commonly vſed to tillage before the ſaid feaſt of Saint George, and for that diuers other particular cauſes may fortune to be, which the generall purueyance of this ſtatute cannot remedie, without greater hurt then good to be done by the ſame. And for that alſo that in ſome places of this Realme, it is not neceſſary the puruey of this Statute to extend and to be fully executed, but in ſome places and vpon ſome occaſions or cauſes, it may more conueniently be ſpared then put in vre, and is therefore neceſſarie to referre ſuch thinges with all other circumſtances to the diſcretions of the Commiſſioners, who may more perfectly vnderſtand the ſame: Bee it therefore ordained and enacted by authoritie of this preſent Parliament, that the ſaid commiſſioners or foure of them at the leaſt, wherof two to bee of the Quorum, ſhall and may conſider the ſaid caſes, and ſuch other like, and vſe their diſcretions in tempering & qualifying of the ſaid generall purueyance of this or any of the foreſaid former Statutes, and in ordering of the ſaid caſes, and ſuch other like, and to omit the execution and penaltie of this act, and of the other former acts accordingly, as to the wiſedomes and diſcretions of them or iiii. of thē at the leaſt, wherof two to be of the Quorum, ſhall be thought moſt neceſſarie: This act or the foreſaid former acts in any wiſe not withſtanding. And ſhall haue power & authoritie to cancel recogniſances taken before thē, & not appearing to them forfaited, if it ſhall ſeeme to thē or 4. of thē, wherof 2. be of the Q. meet & conuenient.

And if any of the ſayd houſes and lands ſhall not be demiſed or letten to farme as is aforeſaid: that then the ſaid commiſſioners, or foure of thē at the leaſt, whereof two to bee of the Quorum, ſhall haue power and aucthoritie by vertue of this acte to demiſe and let the ſaide houſe and landes, to any perſon or perſons, hauing no other farme or tenements within the ſame Pariſh, nor hauing any action or ſuite at that Parliament againſt the Owner, and requiring the ſame for ſeuen yeres at the moſt, for ſuch reaſonable rent, and vppon ſuch reaſonable couenants, as the ſaide Commiſſioners ſhall thinke meet for both parties: So that they take good aſſurance for the payment of the rents, and perfourming of the couenants, to the Owner of the ſame, as they ſhall think conuenient: vppon which leaſe the Owners of the houſe and landes ſo letten, their executours, and aſſignes, and euery of them for the time being, and alſo euery ſuch Leaſſee their executours and aſſignes, and euery of them, ſhall haue ſuch remedie and actions the one againſt the other, as they ſhould or might haue had, if they themſelues had onely beene priuie and parties of the ſaide Leaſes. And bee it enacted by the aucthoritie aforeſaide, that if any perſon or perſons ſhall be condemned or or charged, with, or for any offence, that hee or they ought not to bee charged withall by this acte, or by any of the aforeſaid former ſtatutes: that then the ſayd partie and parties, ſhall and may haue his or their Trauerſe and remedie therefore in the ſtarre chamber, before the counſel there. 7 Foraſmuch as the Statute 4. H. 7. cap. 19. (before 1.) and one other Statute made 7. H. 8. cap. 1. (before 2.) and the Statute made 27. H. 8. ca. 22. (before 3.) are verie good and profitable lawes for the common wealth: It is therefore ordeined &c. that the ſaid Acts & euery of them, and euery branch and article in the ſame, and euery of them contained, ſhall from henceforth bee put in due execution, and remaine and continue in force for euermore. And alſo where by an Act made in the 27. yeere of the raigne of our ſaid late ſoueraigne Lord K. And foraſmuch as there hath beene ſithence the making of this ſayde Statute, certaine other lawes and Statutes made in the time of our late Soueraigne Lord king Edward the vi. (which ſee before 4.) and in the time of our late Soueraigne king Philip and Queene Mary (which ſee before 5.) for the reedifying of decayed houſes of huſbandrie, and for the increaſe of Tillage, which being in ſome partes thereof vnperfect, and in ſome places too milde and gentle, haue not brought to the decayed ſtate of Tillage, and of houſes of Huſbandrie, that long looked for remedie, which was then hoped for: Bee it therefore enacted by the authoritie aforeſaide, that the ſaid lawes and ſtatutes made in the times of the ſaide late king Edward the vi. and king Philip and Queene Marie, touching and concerning the decay of houſes of huſbandry, and for the increaſe of tillage, and euery article and thing in them, and euery of them contained, ſhall bee from henceforth repealed and made voyd to all intents and purpoſes. And bee it &c. that from and after the feaſt of the Annunciation of our Lady, which ſhalbe in the yeere of our Lord God 1564. al ſuch lands and grounds, or ſo much in quantitie as in any towne, village, hamlet, Lordſhip, place knowen, or pariſh within the realm of England or Wales, haue beene eared, ploughed, and put in tillage in any one yeere, and ſo kept in tillage by the ſpace of foure yeeres, any time ſithence the feaſt of Saint George the Martyr, in the xx. yeere of the raigne of king Henry the 8. And that by the authoritie of this act, it ſhall be lawfull for him or them, to leuie the ſame penalty and forfeiture of x. s. for euery acre by diſtreſſe, & to iuſtifie or make their auowries or cogniſances for yͤ ſame, in ſuch maner and forme, as any perſon or perſons may doe for rents reſerued vpon eſtate or eſtates made for terme of yeeres, of any lande or tenements: or otherwiſe ſhall and may ſue for the ſame penaltie and forfeiture by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information in any Court of Record, of the Queene our Soueraigne Ladie, her heires or ſucceſſors, wherein no wager of law, eſſoine or protection ſhall be allowed or admitted for the partie defendant. And if they or any of them doe not diſtreine, or otherwiſe claime or demand the ſaid penalty and forfeiture by any the wayes or meanes aforeſaide, within the ſpace of one whole yere next after the offence done, in forme aboueſaid, and purſue for the ſame with effect, without fraud or couin, and do not recouer (and might haue recouered the ſame) with ſuch ſpeed, as may be by the due order of the lawe: That [illegible]en after ſuch default, it ſhalbe lawful for him or them to whõ the reuerſion or remainder of the fee ſimple of the ſaid lande ſhall appertaine, their executors or adminiſtrators, to diſtreine, auow, or make recogniſance and iuſtifie, or otherwiſe to ſue for the ſaide forfeiture and paines in forme aforeſaid, at any time within one yeere next inſuing any ſuch default. 2 Ye ſhall ſweare, that well and lawfully ye ſhal ſerue our Soueraigne Lord the king, and his people, in the office of Iuſtice, and that lawfully yee ſhall counſaile the king in his buſineſſe, and that yee ſhall not counſaile nor aſſent to any thing which may turne him to dammage or diſheriſon by any maner way or colour, and that ye ſhal not know the dammage or diſheriſon of him, whereof yee ſhall not doe him to bee warned by your ſelfe or by other, and that ye ſhall do euen lawe and execution of right to all his ſubiectes rich and poore, without hauing regard to any perſon. And that ye take not by your ſelfe or by other priuily nor apertly, gift or reward of gold or ſiluer, nor of any other thing which may turne to your profite, vnleſſe it be meate or drinke, and of ſmall valure, of any man that ſhal haue any plee or proceſſe hanging before you, as long as the ſame proces ſhall bee ſo hanging, nor after the ſame cauſe. And that ye take no fee, as long as ye ſhall be Iuſtice, nor roabes of any man great nor ſmall, but of the king himſelfe. And that yee giue none aduiſe nor counſell to no man great nor ſmall, in no caſe where the king is partie. And in caſe that any, of what eſtate or condition they be, come before you in your Seſſions, with force and armes, or otherwiſe againſt the peace, or againſt the forme of the ſtatute thereof made, to diſturbe execution of the common lawe, or to manace the people, that they may not purſue the law, that ye doe their bodies to be arreſted, and put in priſon. And that yee by your ſelfe, nor by other priuily nor apertly, maintaine any plee or quarrell hanging in the kings Court or elſewhere in the Countrie. And that yee deny to no man common right, by the Kings letters, nor none other mans, nor for none other cauſe: and in caſe any letters come to you contrary to the law, that ye

☞ 38 Although there remaine now in force a great number of Statutes, concerning the reteyning, departing, wages and orders of apprentices, ſeruants and labourers, aſwell in huſbandrie, as in diuers other artes, myſteries and occupations: yet partly for the imperfection and contrarietie in them, and for the varietie and number of them, and chiefly for that the wages rated in many of them are too ſmall, and not anſwerable to this time, they cannot without great burden to the poore labourer and hired men, bee put in due execution: wherefore collecting the ſubſtance of the meeteſt of them, and to limit an vniforme order concerning the wages and other orders for apprentices, ſeruants and labourers, that idleneſſe may be baniſhed, huſbandrie aduanced, and the hired men haue at all times a conuenient portion of wages. And bee it further enacted, that euery perſon being vnmaried, and euery other perſon being vnder the age of thirtie yeeres, that after the feaſt of Eaſter next ſhall marry, & hauing bin brought vp in any of the ſaid artes, crafts or ſciences, or that hath vſed or exerciſed any of them by the ſpace of three yeeres or more, and not hauing lands, tenements, rents or hereditaments, copyholde or freeholde, of one eſtate of inheritance, or for terme of any life or liues, of the cleere yeerely value of xl.s. nor being worth of his owne goods the cleere value of x.li. and ſo allowed by two Juſtices of the peace of the County where hee hath moſt cõmonly inhabited by the ſpace of one whole yeere, and vnder their handes and ſeales, or by the Maior or other head officer of the city, borough, or towne corporate, where ſuch perſon hath moſt commonly dwelled by the ſpace of one whole yeere, and two Aldermen, or two other diſcreete burgeſſes of the ſame citie, borough or towne corporate, if there be no Aldermen, vnder their handes and ſeales, nor being reteined with any perſon in huſbandrie, or in any of the foreſaid artes and ſciences, according to this ſtatute, nor lawfully reteined in any other arte or ſcience, nor being lawfully reteined in houſhold, or in any office with any Noble man, Gentleman, or others, according to the Lawes of this Realme, nor hauing a conuenient farme, or other holding in tillage, whereupon hee may imploy his labour, ſhall during the time that he or they ſhal ſo be vnmaried, or vnder the ſaid age of thirtie yeeres, vpon requeſt made by any perſon vſing the Arte or Myſterie wherein the ſaide perſon ſo required hath beene exerciſed, as is aforeſaide, be reteined, and ſhall not refuſe to ſerue, according to the tenor of this Statute, vpon the paine and penaltie hereafter mentioned. 9 Whereas ſince the making of the Statute An. 13. Eliz. cap. 10. (before 5.) diuers of thoſe Eccleſiaſticall perſons haue made new Leaſes, long before the expiration of the former yeeres, contrarie to the true meaning of the ſaid ſtatute: Be it therefore enacted by this preſent Parliament, that all Leaſes hereafter to be made by any of the ſaid Eccleſiaſticall, ſpirituall, or collegiate perſons, or others, of any their ſaid eccleſiaſtical, ſpirituall, or collegiate lands, tenements, or hereditaments, whereof any former leaſe for yeeres, is in being, not to be expired, ſurrendred, or ended within three yeeres, next after the making of any ſuch new Leaſe, ſhall be voide, fruſtrate, and of none effect: any law, vſage, or cuſtome to the contrarie notwithſtanding. And where Sir Thomas White, late knight and Alderman of London, for aduancement of good learning, hath founded one Colledge in the Uniuerſitie of Oxford, called Saint Iohn Baptiſts Colledge, and being ſeiſed of the manour of Fiſhide, alias Fifield in the Countie of Berk. did together with all other his lands, tenements, and hereditaments, giue and aſſure the ſaid manour with the appurtenances, to the Preſident and Schollers of the ſaid Colledge for euer: (And neuertheleſſe the ſaid Sir Tho. White, hauing then one Ralph White his brother lyuing and ſundrie kinſmen, to whom by courſe of the common Law his lands might haue diſcended) did deuiſe and order, and by the ſtatutes which he prouided for the ſaid houſe, and by order of the now Viſitor of the ſaid Colledge: it is ordeyned, that the ſaid manour of Fiſhide, alias Fyfield, with the appurtenances, ſhould be demiſed by the ſaid Preſident and Schollers, for the time being, to the ſaid Ralph, for the terme of foureſcore and xix. yeeres, if the ſaid Ralph ſhould ſo long liue, and ſo it is intended, that from heire male to heire male of the ſaid Sir Thomas White, new demiſes ſhould from time to time be made of the ſaid manour with the appurtenances, to euery ſuch heire male ſucceſſiuely, for the terme of foureſcore and nineteene yeeres, if ſuch heire male ſhould ſo long liue, yeelding to the ſaid Preſident and Schollers for the time being, ſuch rent as now is reſerued, with ſuch further couenants and conditions, as by the ſaid Sir Thomas White, or Viſitor, is agreed and appointed. And where ſithen the deceaſe of the ſaid Sir Thomas White, the ſaid aſſurances to the ſaid Preſident and Schollers, in all, or the moſt part of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments of the ſaid Founder, were found in ſome reſpect vnperfect, and inſufficient in law, (and that thereupon the ſaid Ralph White, to whom the aduantage of ſuch imperfection came by law, did neuertheleſſe take no ſuch aduantage, but did willingly make perfect the ſaid aſſurances, according to the true meaning of the ſaid Sir Thomas White his brother, accepting onely one leaſe of the ſaid manour, in ſuch ſort as by the ſaid Viſitor was appointed, with the Copyholds, and other appurtenances of the ſaid manour.) For remedie whereof be it enacted, that the Preſident and Schollers of the ſaid Colledge, may from time to time demiſe the ſaid manour, copyholds, and other appurtenances, to euery heire male of the ſaid Sir Thomas White ſucceſſiuely, according to the forme of the Leaſe thereof alreadie made to the ſaid Ralph, & that euery ſuch Leaſe ſo to be made, & euery couenant made, or to be made for the performance of the ſame, ſhal be good in law, as if the ſaid Act made in the ſaid xiii. yeere of Eliz. had neuer been had nor made: any thing in the ſaid act made in the ſaid xiii. yeere, or any other act or matter whatſoeuer to the contrary notwithſtanding. Malt.

ANno 33.H.6.cap.4. An act was made to prohibite the Brewers in Kent to make aboue C. quarters of Malt in on yeere. This continued only fiue yeeres.

2 Where diuers and ſundrie perſons, taking vpon them the art and myſtery of Malt-making, and ſundrie other perſons, tending more their own priuate lucre, gaine, and profit, then the wholeſome victualling of the kings Maieſtie, the nobilitie of this Realme, and other his graces Subiects, haue now of late by their vnſatiable, couetous, and greedy mindes, accuſtomably and commonly made much Malt, vnpure and vnſeaſonable, for that they haue made the ſame Malt in eight or nine dayes, where indeed the ſame cannot bee well and perfectly made, vnleſſe it haue the time and ſpace of xii. dayes in the making thereof. And where alſo diuers and ſundry of the ſaid makers of Malt, commonly haue and doe ſlackly and deceitfully dry the Malt, ſo by them made, for that they would haue an inordinate increaſe therof, by the ſwelling of the ſaid Malt, wherby the ſame Malt not being ſufficiẽtly dried, cannot be kept any long time or ſpace, but it will be muſty and full of weuels, whereby no wholeſome drinke for mans body can by any meanes thereof bee made, which is not onely to the great perill and danger of the nobilitie, & other the kings highnes ſubiects, within this realme, and alſo to the great loſſe and decay of the common wealth of the ſame, but alſo an vtter impoueriſhment of the Brewers of this ſaid realme, for that the ſaid Brewers (ouer and beſides the vnwholſomnes of the drink, which is commonly made thereof) cannot make ſo much drinke of fiftie quarters of Malt, being ſo euil dryed and made, as they might and can make of fortie quarters, being well & truely made. And alſo, foraſmuch as diuers and ſundrie perſons, minding and ſeeking their own priuate and exceſſiue gaine and profit, forgetting thereby their dutie, and the order or charitie towardes the common wealth and their neighbours in this behalfe, doe commonlie vſe to put & mixt good Malt, and euill Malt together, and after put the ſame Malt to ſale, as good Malt, whereby many of the Kinges ſubiects haue beene and are like to be verie often deceiued, to their great loſſe and hinderance, contrarie to the honeſt, ſeemely, and godly buying, ſelling, and commutation that ſhould and ought to bee amongſt Chriſtian people, ſpecially in thinges concerning the ſuſtentation and ſuſtenance of mans bodie: For remedie whereof be it enacted &c. that no ſuch perſon or perſons at any time after the firſt day of March next comming, ſhall make any barley Malt (the moneths of Iune, Iuly, and Auguſt only excepted) but that the ſame ſhall haue in making thereof, that is to ſay, in the fat, flower, ſteeping, and ſufficient drying of the ſame Malt, three weekes at the leaſt, & that no ſuch perſon or perſons at anie time within the ſaid moneths of Iune, Iuly, and Auguſt, ſhall make any barley Malt, except the ſame haue in the fat, flowre, ſteeping, and ſufficient drying, the time & ſpace of 17. dayes at the leaſt, vnder and without which time and times, the ſaid Malt cannot be well and perfectly made, nor wholeſome for mans bodie: vpon paine to forfeit and loſe for euerie quater of malt which ſhalbe made by any perſon or perſons, contrary to the tenor, purport, and true meaning of this acte ii.s. And be it further enacted &c. that no perſon or perſons, after the firſt of March next comming, ſhall mingle, or put together any Malt, not being well and ſufficiently made, or being made of mowburnt, or ſpired Barley, with other good Malt, and after put the ſame ſo mingled to ſale, vpon paine to forfeit and loſe for euerie quarter ſo mingled and put to ſale ii. s. And be it alſo further enacted &c. that if any perſon or perſons after the laſt day of Ianuarie next comming, ſhall put to ſale any Malt which ſhall not be ſufficently and well trodden, rubbed and well fanned, whereby there may be conueniently fanned out of one quarter thereof halfe a pecke of duſt or more, that thẽ the perſon ſo putting the ſame to ſale, ſhall forfeit & loſe for euery quarter ſo put to ſale xx.d. The moitie of all which forfeitures to be to the king our Soueraigne Lord, and the other moitie thereof to the party that wil ſue for the ſame by action of debt, bil, plaint or information, in any of the kings courts, wherein no protection, wager of law, nor eſſoin nor iniunction, ſhalbe admitted or allowed. And be it further enacted &c. that the Iuſtices of peace in euerie of their ſeſſions, and alſo the ſteward in euery leet, ſhall haue ful power and authoritie by vertue of this act, to inquire heare and determine aſwell by preſentment of xii. men, as by accuſation or information of two honeſt witneſſes, of, for, and vpon, all and euery the offences & forfaitures aforeſaid, aſwell for the king, as for the party that ſhall ſue, procure or cauſe the ſame to be preſented, as is aforeſaid. And that the Bailifes and Conſtables of euerie Borough, or Market towne, or other towne where any ſuch Malt ſhall bee made, or put to ſale, ſhall haue full power and authoritie from time to time to view, ſearch and ſuruey all ſuch Malt as ſhall be made or put to ſale, within any of the ſaid Townes. And if any of them ſhall thereupon finde any Malt ſo put to ſale being euill made or mingled with euill Malt, contrary to the tenor and true meaning of this preſent acte: that then the ſaide Bailife or Conſtable ſo finding any ſuch Malt, euill made, or mingled as is aforeſaid, with the aduice of one Iuſtice of Peace, within the ſame Shire, ſhall cauſe the ſame to be ſold to ſuch perſon or perſons,

CONcerning the authoritie of the Stewards and Marſhals, and of ſuch plees as they may hold, and in what maner: It is ordeined that from hencefoorth they ſhall not hold plee of freehold, nor of debt, nor of couenant, nor of any contract made betweene the kings people, but onely of treſpas done within the kings houſe, or within the vierge, and of ſuch contracts and couenants that one of the kings houſe maketh with another of the ſame houſe, and within the houſe, and none other where. And they ſhall pleade no plee of treſpaſſe, except the partie were attached by them, before the king departed from the place where the treſpaſſe was committed, and ſhall plead them ſpeedily from day to day, ſo that they may bee pleaded and determined before that the king depart out of the limites of the ſame vierge where the treſpas was done. And that thing that cannot be determined before the ſteward, becauſe the felons can not be attached, or for other like cauſe, ſhall be remitted to the common law, ſo that exigends, outlawries, & preſentments ſhall be made thereupon in the Eire by the Coroner of the countrey, aſwell as of other felonies done out of the vierge: neuertheles, they ſhall not omit by reaſon hereof, to make attachments freſhly vpon the felonies done. When chiefe lordes diſtrain in their fee for Cuſtomes & ſeruices to them due, & there is a mean which ought to acquite the tenant, ſithence it lieth not in the mouth of the tenant, after that he hath repleuied the diſtreſſe, to denie the demaund of the chiefe Lord, which auoweth in the K. Court, that the diſtreſſe is lawfully taken vpõ his tenant, which is vpon the meane, and many haue bin ſore grieued by ſuch diſtreſſes, in ſo much as the meane(notwithſtanding that he hath ſufficient, whereby he may bee diſtreined) doeth make long delayes before hee will come into the court to anſwere for his tenant vnto the writ of meane, and moſt hard of all when the meane had nothing: In caſe alſo when the tenant was ready to do his ſeruices & cuſtomes vnto his L. and the chiefe L. would refuſe to take ſuch ſeruice & cuſtomes by the hands of any other then of his next tenant, & ſo ſuch tenants in demand loſt ſomewhiles the profits of their lands for a time, and ſome whiles for their whole time, & hitherto no remedie hath bin prouided in this caſe: A remedie is prouided, & ordeined in this forme, that ſo ſoone as the tenant in demeane (hauing a meane between him & the chief L.) is diſtrained, incontinent the tenant ſhall purchaſe his writ of meane. And if the meane hauing land in the ſame county, abſent himſelf vntil ẏ great diſtres be awarded, the plaintife ſhall haue ſuch day giuen him in his writ of great diſtreſſe afore the comming wherof 2. counties may be holden, & the ſhirife ſhal be commanded to diſtraine the meane by the great diſtres, like as it is conteined in the writ. And neuertheleſſe the ſhirif in 2. ful cõties ſhal cauſe to be proclaimed ſolemnely, ẏ the meane do come at a day contained in the writ, for to anſwere his tenant, at which day if he come, the plee ſhall paſſe between them after the common vſage. And if he do not come, then he ſhall leeſe the ſeruices of his tenant & from thenceforth the tenant ſhal not anſwere him in any thing, but the ſame mean being excluded, he ſhal anſwer vnto the chiefe L. for ſuch ſeruices & cuſtoms as the mean vſed to do before that time. Neither ſhal the chiefe L. haue power to diſtrein, ſo long as the aforeſaid tenãt do offer him the ſeruices & cuſtomes due. And if the chief L. exact more then the meane ought to do, the tenant in ſuch caſe ſhal haue againſt him al ſuch exceptions as the mean ſhould, & if the meane haue nothing wͭin the K. dominion, the tenant ſhall neuertheles purchaſe his writ of meſne, to the ſhirif of the ſame ſhire, wherein he is diſtrained, & if the ſhirif return, that he hath nothing whereby he may be ſummoned, thẽ ſhal the tenant ſue his writ of attachment, and if the ſhirife returne, that he hath nothing to be attached by, he ſhal neuertheleſſe ſue his writ of great diſtres, & proclamatiõ ſhalbe made in forme abouesaid. And if ẏ mean haue no land in the ſhire, where the diſtres is takẽ, but hath land in ſome other ſhire, then a writ originall ſhal iſſue to ſummõ the meane, vnto the ſhirife of the ſame ſhire (where the diſtres is taken) and when it is returned by the ſhirife, that he hath nothing in his ſhire, a writ iudiciall ſhal iſſue to ſummon the meane, vnto the ſhirife of the ſame ſhire, in which it ſhalbe teſtified that he hath land, and ſuit ſhalbe made in the ſame ſhire vntill they haue paſſed vnto the great diſtres, & proclamation as aboue is ſaide, where the mean hath land in ẏ ſame ſhire, in which the diſtres is taken. And neuertheles ſuit ſhal be made in the ſame ſhire, where he hath nothing, as aboue is ſaid, of the mean, that hath nothing, vntill the proces come to the great diſtres & proclamation, & ſo after proclamation made in both counties, the meane ſhall be foreiudged of his fee and ſeruice. And where it happeneth many times, that the tenant in demeane is infeoffed to holde by leſſe ſeruice, then the meane ought to doe vnto the chiefe lord, whẽ after ſuch proclamation the tenant hath atturned to the chiefe lord, ann the mean being excluded, the tenant muſt of neceſſitie anſwere to the chiefe lord, for al ſuch ſeruices and cuſtoms as the meane was wont to do to him. And after that the meane is come into the court, and hath confeſſed, that he ought to acquite his tenant, or be compelled by iudgement to acquite, if after ſuch confeſſion or iudgement it is complained, that the Meſne doth not acquite his tenant, then ſhall iſſue a writ iudicial that the ſhirife ſhal diſtraine the meane to acquit ẏ tenant, & to be at a certain day before the Iuſticers, for to ſhew why he hath not acquited him before, and when they haue proceeded vnto ẏ great diſtres, the plaintife ſhalbe heard. 2 The King willeth and commandeth, that the peace of holy Church and of the land bee well kept and mainteined in all points. And that common right be done to all, aſwell poore as rich, without reſpect of perſons: and becauſe the Abbots, and the religious of the land, haue bin ouercharged and ſore grieued by the reſort of great Men and others, ſo that their goods haue not bin ſufficient for themſelues, wherby they haue bin greatly hindred and impouериſhed, that they cannot maintein themſelues, nor ſuch charity, as they haue bin accuſtomed to doe: It is prouided, that none ſhall come to eate or lodge in any houſe of religion of any other Foundation then of his owne, at the coſts of the houſe, vnleſſe he be required by the gouernor of the houſe before his comming thither. And that none, of his own coſts, ſhall enter and come to lie there againſt the will of them that be of the houſe. And by this ſtatute the King intendeth not, that the grace of Hoſpitalitie ſhould be withdrawen from ſuch as neede, nor that the Founders of ſuch Monaſteries ſhould ouercharge, or grieue them by their often comming: it is prouided alſo, that none, high nor low, by colour of kinred, affinitie or alliance, or by any other occaſion, ſhall courſe in any parke, nor fiſh in any pond, nor come to eate, or to lodge in the houſe or manor of a prelate, or any other religious perſon, againſt the will of the Lord or his bailife, neither at the coſt of the Lord, nor at his owne. And if he come in, or enter with the good will, or againſt the will of the Lorde or his bailife, hee ſhall cauſe no doore, locke, nor window, nor nothing that is ſhut, to be opened or broken by himſelfe nor any other, nor no maner of victuall, nor other thing ſhal take by colour of buying nor otherwiſe. And that none ſhal threſh corne nor take corne, nor any maner of victuall, nor other goods of prelate, man of religion, or any other clerke, or lay perſon by colour of buying nor otherwiſe, againſt the wil and licence of him, to whõ the thing belongeth, or of the keeper, be it wͭin market town or without. And that none ſhall take horſes, oxen, ploughs, carts, ſhips, nor barges, to make cariage without the aſſent of him to whõ ſuch things belong. And if he do it by the aſſent of the party, then incontinent hee ſhall pay according to the couenant made betweene them. And they that offend againſt theſe acts, & thereof be attainted, ſhalbe cõmitted to the kings priſon, and after ſhall make fine, and be puniſhed according to the quantity & maner of the treſpaſſe, and after as the king in his court ſhall thinke conuenient. And they that haue done the treſpaſſe ſhall be likewiſe puniſhed in the manner aboueſaide. And if none will ſue, the King ſhall haue the ſuite, as for a thing committed againſt his commandement, and againſt his peace. And the King ſhall make inquirie from yeere to yeere, what perſons doe ſuch treſpaſſes, after as hee ſhall thinke neceſſarie and conuenient. And they that bee indicted by ſuch inqueſtes ſhall be attached and conſtrained by the great diſtres, to come at a certaine day containing the ſpace of a Moneth, in the kings court, or where it ſhall pleaſe the king. And if they come not at the day, they ſhall be diſtreined againe of new by the ſame diſtres, for to come at another day, containing the ſpace of ſixe weeks at the leaſt: and if they come not then, they ſhalbe iudged as attainted, and ſhal yeeld double damages (at the kings ſuit) to ſuch as haue taken hurt or dammage, and ſhall make a grieuous fine after the maner of the treſpaſſe. And it is further prouided, that the pointes aforeſaid ſhall as well binde our Counſellors, Iuſticers of forreſts, and other our Iuſticers, as any other perſons, and that the foreſaid pointes bee mainteined, obſerued and kept. Likewiſe the King forbiddeth vpon grieuous forf. that no prelate, abbot, man of religion, or bailife of any of them, or of other, receiue any man contrary to the forme aforeſaide. And that none ſhall ſende to the houſe or manor of a man of religion, or of any other perſon, his men, horſe, or dogs to ſoiourne, nor none ſhall them receiue, and hee that doth (ſeeing the king hath commanded the contrary) ſhall bee grieuouſly puniſhed. Yet it is further prouided, that Shirifs from hencefoorth ſhall not lodge with any perſon, with any moe then v. or vi. horſes, And that they ſhal not grieue religious men, nor other by often comming or lodging, neither at their houſes, nor their manors. Money.

AGainſt the perils and damages, which are of late come, and which hereafter may come of the money of England: It is thus ordeined, that it be cryed and defended on the Kinges behalfe through the whole realme, in all the Marchant townes, that no man vpon grieuous forfeiture, be ſo hardie to diſpend, receiue, or ſend money, of other coyne then of the coyne of the king of England, Ireland, and Scotland. Alſo that it be defended of the kings behalfe, that none bring money into this Countrey, but onely for his expenſes, neyther that hee be ſo hardie to arriue into England, if the force of tempeſt doe not inforce him, by good witneſſe, but at Douer, or at Sandwich, at London, and at S. Botolph, and at Southampton, and to other common ports. And when hee ſhall come to any of theſe places, he ſhall well and lawfully ſhew his money to him, that ſhall be aſſigned by the king, without any concealment, vpon paine of forfeiture of his bodie, & that which he hath, and that from thence hee carrie not, nor eſloine the ſame by himſelfe nor by other, vntill that his money be viewed and examined by him whom the king ſhall aſſigne. And further, that it be cryed and defended on the kinges behalfe, vpon paine of forfeiture of his body and that which he hath, that no man be ſo hardie to ſend money betweene clothes, in fardels, or in bales, or in any other maner, whereof ſuſpition may be of any concealement. And if there be any ſuch found, hee which found the ſame, ſhall haue foure pence of the pound, and the reſt to be to the king. And alſo that it be cryed and commaunded on the kings behalfe, that if any finde money coyned of any other coyne, then of the coine of the king of England, Ireland, or Scotland, or rounded money, that hee breake the ſame, and that none be ſo hardie to gaineſay the ſame, vpon paine of grieuous forfeiture, and hee which findeth the ſame falſe, ſhall breake the ſame, the broken money ſhall be giuen to him who oweth it, and the falſe money ſhall be pierced without reſtoring it, and the bodie of him in whoſe handes the falſe or clipped money appeareth to be found, be taken and holden, vntill ſuch time as hee can finde ſuertie, if he be a ſupitious man. And becauſe that many of the pore and rich people cannot know the light & clipped money, now it is ordeined, that hereafter he which ought to receiue or pay money, ſhall rereiue and pay the ſame by weight of fiue ſhillinges of euen weight by the tumbrel, deliuered by the warden of the Eſchange, marked with the kings marke, as the meaſures are, and it ſhall bee lawfull to any man to pierce the mony which ſhall not weigh the tumbrell, and the money of other coyne, then of the coyne of the king of England, Ireland, and Scotland, the weight ſhall be aſwell deliuered and marked by the Warden of the Eſchange, as the tumbrell, the viewer and the warden of the money which ſhall come from beyond the Sea, when he ſhall haue any, he ſhall haue regard vnto the age thereof, and ſhal weigh the ſame, and if hee finde of the new money, that the pound weigheth not xx. s. by the number of iiii. pence, then hee ſhall haue regard by the tumbrell, where the default ſhall be, and if hee ſee money which is much vſed, if in the whole pound of xx. s. it want but vi. d. then it ſhall be deliuered to him who brought the ſame, without gaineſaying, and if it want more it ſhall be done of them, as of the reſt. And let the Warden aforeſaid take good heed that he take no gift nor allowance, to make anie meanes of ſport, nor make any extortion, nor giue any maner of delay, as he will ſaue himſelf & his goods. Indenture

4 It is to be vnderſtanden, that the king ordeined at Weſtminſter the firſt day of Aprill, the xxvii. yeere of his reigne, that ſuch as would purchaſe new parkes, and men of religion, that would amortiſe landes or tenements, ſhould haue writs out of the kinges Chancerie, for to inquire vpon the points accuſtomed in ſuch thinges, and that the enqueſts of lands or tenements that be worth yeerely more then xx. s. by extent, be returned into the Eſchequer, and there they to make fine for the amortiſements, or for the hauing of the parke, if the inqueſts doe paſſe for him that purchaſed them, & from thence it ſhall be certified vnto the Chauncelour, or his lieutenant, and that he take a reaſonable fine therefore, according to the quantitie of the thing, and after to deliuer them. In like maner be it done for them, that will purchaſe landes or tenements holden of the King in chiefe. Alſo folke dwelling beyond the ſea, that haue lands and tenements, or rents in England, and will purchaſe letters of protection, or to make generall Atturnies, they ſhall be ſent into the Eſchequer, and there ſhall make their fines, and from thence ſhall be ſent vnto the Chauncelour, or to his lieutenant, for that that he ought to doe therein. In like maner they ſhall doe, that will purchaſe any Faire, Market, warreine, or any other libertie. Alſo ſuch as will purchaſe atturnement or ſtalment of their debts, ſhall be ſent into the Eſchequer. Alſo ſuch as be not able to trauaile, and folke that dwell in farre Counties, which plead, or be impleaded, ſhall haue a writ out of the Chauncery to ſome ſufficient man, that ſhall receiue their Atturnies when neede is. And for a remembrance of theſe things, be there an Indenture made, deuided into three parts, whereof one part to remaine in the Chauncerie, an other in the Eſchequer, and the third in the Gardrobe, An.27.E.1. Ordinatio de Libertatibus perquirendis. See the ſame ſtatute almoſt word for word in the volume of the old Statutes fol. 92. intituled, Statutum de terris & tenementis amortizand'.

And if any man be wounded in perill of death, the partie that ſo wounded ſhould be arreſted, and put in ſuretie, till perfit knowledge be had, whether he ſo hurt ſhould liue or die. And the Coroner vpon the view of the bodie dead, ſhould inquire of him or them that had done that death, or murder, or their abbetters, and conſenters, and who were preſent when the death or murder was done, whether man or woman, and the names of them that were preſent, and ſo found, to inroll and certifie, which law by negligence is diſuſed, and thereby great boldneſſe is giuen to ſlayers and murderers: And ouer this it is vſed, that within the yeere and day after any death or murder had and done, the felon ſhould not be determined at the kings ſuit, for ſauing of the parties ſuit: wherein the partie is oft times ſlow, and alſo agreed with, and by the end of the yeere all is forgotten, which is an other occaſion of murder. And that if any man be ſlaine or murdered, and therefore the ſlayers, murderers, abbetters, mainteiners, and comforters of the ſame be indicted, that the ſame ſlayers and murderers, and all other acceſſaries of the ſame, be arreigned and determined of the ſame felony and murder, at any time of the kinges ſuit within the yeere after the ſame felonie and murder done, and not tarie the yeere and day for any appeal to be taken for the ſame felonie or murder. And if it happen any perſon named as principall or acceſſary, to be acquited of any ſuch murder at the kings ſuit within the yeere and day, that then the ſame Iuſtices before whom he is acquited, ſhall not ſuffer him to go at large, but either to remit him againe to priſon, or elſe to let him to baile after their diſcretion, till the yeere and day be paſſed. And if it fortune that the ſame felons and murderers, and acceſſaries ſo arreigned, or any of them to be acquited, or the principall of the ſaid felony, or any of them, to be attainted, the wife or next heires to him ſo ſlaine, as ſhall require, may take and haue their appeal of the ſame death and murder, within the yere and day after the ſame felony and murder done, againſt the ſaid perſons ſo arreigned and acquited, and all other their acceſſaries, or againſt the acceſſaries of the ſaid principall, or any of them ſo attainted, or againſt the ſaid principals ſo attainted, if they be on liue, and the benefite of his clergie thereof before not had. And that the appellant haue ſuch and like aduantages, as if the ſaid acquitall or attainder had not been, the ſaid acquitall or attainder notwithſtanding. And ouer that, the wife or heire of the ſaid perſon ſo ſlaine or murdered, as caſe ſhall require, may commence their appeal in proper perſon, at any time within the yeere after the ſaid felonie done, before the Shirife & Coroners of the Countie where the ſaid felony and murder was done, or before the king and his bench, or Iuſtice of gaole deliuery. And the appellant in any appeales of Murder of death of a man, where battell by the courſe of the common law lieth not, may make their Atturnies, and appeare by the ſame in the ſaid appeales after they be commenced to the end of the ſuit, and execution of the ſame. And if any perſon be ſlaine or murdered in the day, and the murderer eſcape vntaken, that the towneſhip where the ſaid deed is ſo done, be amerced for the ſaid eſcape. And that the Coroner haue aucthoritie to inquire thereof vpon the view of the bodie dead. And alſo Iuſtices of peace haue power to inquire of ſuch eſcapes, and that to certifie afore the king in his Bench. And that after the felonie found, the Coroners deliuer their inquiſitions afore the Iuſtices of the next gaole deliuerie in the Shire where inquiſition is taken, the ſame Iuſtices to proceed againſt ſuch Murderers, if they be in the gaole. Bee it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if any perſon or perſons, of what eſtate, condition, or degree ſoeuer he or they be, at any time after the ende of the ſaide fourtie dayes, and during the life of our ſaide Soueraigne Ladie the Queenes Maieſtie, (that now is) either within her Highnes Dominions, or without, ſhal by ſetting or erection of any figure or figures, or by caſting of natiuities, or by calculation, or by any prophecying, witchcraft, coniurations, or other like vnlawfull meanes whatſoeuer, ſeeke to know, and ſhall ſet forth by expreſſe words, deedes, or writings, how long her Maieſtie ſhall liue or continue, or who ſhall raigne as King or Queene of this Realme of England, after her Highneſſe deceaſe, or elſe ſhall aduiſedly and with a malicious intent againſt her Highneſſe, vtter any maner of direct prophecies to any ſuch intent or purpoſe, or ſhal maliciouſly by any words, writing, or printing, wiſh, will or deſire the death or depriuation of our ſoueraigne Ladie the Queenes Maieſtie (that now is) or any thing directly to the ſame effect, that then euery ſuch offence ſhall be Felonie, and euery offender and offenders therein, and alſo all his or their aiders, procurers, and abetters in or to the ſaide offences, ſhalbe iudged as Felons, and ſhall ſuffer ſuch paines of death and forfaiture as in caſe of felonie is vſed, without any benefite of Clergie or Sanctuarie. And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the Iuſtices of the court, commonly called the Kings bench, Iuſtices of Oier and determiner, Iuſtices of aſſiſes in their ſeueral circuites, and Iuſtices of generall gaole deliuerie, aſwell within liberties, as without, within the limits of their ſeuerall commiſſions, ſhall by vertue hereof, haue full power and authoritie to enquire of, and to heare and determine all and euery the offences aforeſaide, and that the partie indited & arraigned of any of the offences aforeſaid, ſhal haue aduantage of all maner of chalenges to the Iurie, as in triall of felonie is vſed. FRom henceforth two Iuſtices ſworne ſhall bee aſſigned, before whom and none other, aſſiſes of Nouel diſſeiſin, Mortdanceſter, and attaints ſhall be taken, and ſhall aſſociate with them, two or one of the diſcreeteſt Knightes of the Shire into which they ſhall come, and ſhall take the foreſaid aſſiſes and attaintes but thrice in the yeere at the moſt, that is to ſay, Firſt betweene the Quinzime of Saint Iohn Baptiſt, and the guile of Auguſt, and the ſecond time betweene the feaſt of the Exaltation of the Croſſe, and the Vtas of Saint Michael, and the thirde time betweene the Feaſt of the Epiphanie, and the feaſt of the Purification. And in euery Shire at euery taking of Aſſiſes, before their departure, they ſhall appoint the date of their returne, ſo that euery one of the Shire may know of their comming, and ſhall adiourne the aſſiſes from terme to terme, if the taking of them be deferred at any day by vouching to warrantie, by eſſoine, or by default of iurors. And if they ſee that it bee profitable for any cauſe, that aſſiſes of Mortdanceſter being reſpected by eſſoine or voucher, ought to be adiourned into the bench: it ſhal be lawfull for them to doe it, and then they ſhall ſende the Recorde with the originall Writ before the Iuſticers of the bench. And when the matter is come to the taking of the aſſiſe, the Iuſticers of the bench ſhall remit the matter to the firſt Iuſticers before whom the aſſiſe ſhal be taken. But from henceforth the Iuſticers of the Bench in ſuch aſſiſes ſhall giue foure dayes at the leaſt in the yeere, before the ſaid Iuſtices aſſigned, for to ſpare expence and labour. Inquiſitions of treſpaſſe ſhal be determined before the Iuſticers of both benches, except the treſpaſſe be ſo hainous that it ſhall require great examination. Inquiſitions alſo of other plees pleaded in either of the benches ſhall be determined before them, wherein ſmal examination is required, as when the entrie or ſeiſon of any is denied, or in caſe when one article is to be inquired. But Inquiſition of many & great articles, the which require great examination, ſhall be taken before Iuſticers of the Bench, except that both parties deſire yͤ the Inquiſition may be taken afore ſome of the aſſociates, when they happen to come into thoſe partes, ſo that from henceforth it ſhal not be done but by two Iuſtices or one, with ſome Knight of the Shire, vpon whom the parties can agree. And ſuch Inquiſition ſhall not be determined before any Iuſticers of the bench, vnleſſe a day and a place certaine bee appointed in the Shire in the preſence of the parties, and the day and place ſhall be mentioned in a writ iudicial by theſe words: Præcipimus tibi, quod Venire facias coram Iuſticiarijs noſtris apud Weſtmonaſterium in octauis Sancti Michaelis (niſi talis, & talis, tali die & loco ad partes illas prius venerint) duodecim &c. And when ſuch maner of Enqueſts be taken, they ſhall bee returned into the Bench, and there ſhall iudgement be giuen and inrolled. And if any inquiſitions bee taken otherwiſe then after this forme, they ſhall be of none effect, except that aſſiſe of Darrein preſentment, and inquiſitions of Quare impedit ſhal be deliuered in their owne Shire before one Iuſticer of the Bench, and one knight, at a day and place certaine in the bench aſſigned, whether the defendant conſent or not, and there the iudgement ſhal be giuen immediatly. All Iuſticers of the benches from henceforth ſhall haue in their circuites, Clearkes to inroll all Pleas pleaded before them, like as they haue vſed to haue in time paſſed. Alſo it is ordeined, that the Iuſticers aſſigned to take aſſiſes, ſhall not compell the Iurors to ſay preciſely, whether it be diſſeiſin or not, ſo that they doe ſhew the trueth of the deed, and require aide of the Iuſticers. But if they of their owne head will ſay, that it is diſſeiſin, their verdict ſhall bee admitted at their owne perill. And from hencefoorth the Iuſtices ſhall not put in aſſiſes or Iuries, any other then were ſummoned to the ſame at the firſt. Weſt.2.cap.30.An.13.Ed.1.

2 Henry by the grace of God, king of England, Lord of Ireland, Duke of Guyon and Normandy, Earle of Angeo, to his truſty and welbeloued, Gerard ſonne of Maurice, Iuſticer of Ireland, greeting. Whereas certaine knights of the partes of Ireland, haue lately informed vs, that when any land doth deſcend vnto ſiſters within our dominion of Ireland, the Iuſtices in eire in thoſe partes, are in doubt, whether the yonger ſiſters ought to hold of the eldeſt ſiſter, and doe homage vnto her or or not. And foraſmuch as the ſaid knights haue made inſtance to be certified, how it hath been vſed heretofore within our Realme of England in like caſe. At their inſtance, we do you to wit, that ſuch a law & cuſtome is in England in this caſe, that if any holding of vs in chiefe, happen to die, hauing daughters to his heires, our aunceſtors & we, after the death of the father, haue alway had and receiued homage of all the daughters, and euery of them, that in this caſe did hold of vs in chiefe. And if they happen to be within age, we haue alway had the warde and marriage of them. And if he be tenant vnto another Lord (the ſiſters being within age) the Lord ſhal haue the warde & marriage of them all, and the eldeſt onely ſhall do homage for her ſelfe, and all her ſiſters. And when the other ſiſters come to full age, they ſhall doe their ſeruice to the Lords of the fee by the hands of the eldeſt ſiſter. Yet ſhall not the eldeſt by this occaſion exact of her yonger ſiſters, homage, warde, or any other ſubiection: for when they be all ſiſters, and in maner as one heire to one inheritance, if the eldeſt ſhould haue homage of the other ſiſters, or demand warde, then the inheritance ſhould ſeeme to be diuided, ſo that the eldeſt ſiſter ſhould be Lord and tenant of one inheritance (ſimul & ſemel,) that is to ſay, heire of her owne part, and Lord to her ſiſters, which could not ſtand well together in this caſe, for the eldeſt can demand no more then her ſiſters, but onely the chiefe meaſe by reaſon of her ancientie. Moreouer, if the elder ſiſter ſhould take homage of the yonger, ſhe ſhould be as a ſeignioreſſe to them all, and ſhould haue the warde of them, and their heires, which ſhould be none other, but to caſt the lambe to the wolfe to be deuoured. And therfore we commaund you, that you cauſe the foreſaid cuſtomes that be vſed within our Realme of England in this caſe, to be proclaimed thorowout our dominion of Ireland, and to be ſtraightly kept and obſerued. In teſtimonie wherof &c. I witnes my ſelfe at Weſtminſter the 9. day of February, the 14. yeere of our reigne, An. 14. H. 3.

5 Foraſmuch as the Commons of the Realme of England, being in the ſame parliament, at the inſtance and ſpeciall requeſt of the faithfull liege people of our ſoueraigne Lord the King, the Bailifes, Burgeſſes, and Communaltie of the Towne of Tewkeſburie, within the Countie of Glouceſter, haue made to our ſoueraigne Lord the king a verie grieuous complaint in the ſame Parliament, that whereas the ſaid Towne of Tewkeſbury, is adioyning to the riuer of Seuerne, within the ſaid Countie of Glouceſter, which riuer is common to all the liege people of our ſoueraigne Lord the king, to carie and bring, within the ſtreame of the ſaid riuer, in boats, troughs, and otherwiſe, all maner of marchandiſe, & other goods and cattels, to Briſtow, and to euery part adioyning to the ſame riuer: In the which riuer, diuers perſons of the ſaid Town of Tewkeſbury, oftentimes, and now of late haue charged their proper veſſels and troughs with wheate, rie, and other corne & goods, to the value of fiue hundred pounds, & ſo the ſame veſſels & troughs ſo charged, haue conueyed in the ſame riuer towards the ſaid Towne of Briſtow, by the coaſtes of the Foreſt of Deane, within the ſaid countie of Glouceſter, ioyning to the ſaid riuer, there haue come great multitude of people and rouers of the Commons of the ſame Foreſt, and of the hundred of Bledillow and Weſtbury, with great riot and force in maner of warre, as enemies of a ſtrange land, and with force haue ſpoyled the ſame perſons of the ſaid veſſels, and taken of them all their corne and goods within the ſame veſſels, and the ſame perſons haue menaced & threatned to, if they made any reſiſtance, or any ſute, quarrell, or complaint for the ſame, to the great hinderance, loſſe, and impoueriſhment of the ſaid perſons, and oppreſſion of all the Countrie there adioyning. And afterward the ſame our ſoueraigne Lord the king by the aduiſe and conſent of his Councell, ſent his letters or priuie ſeale, directed to diuers perſons of the ſaid Foreſt, to make open proclamation, that no man of the ſaid Foreſt ſhould be ſo hardie, to inquire or diſturbe his people to paſſe by the riuer with all maner of corne, goods, and cattels, or any other marchandiſe, vpon the paine of Treaſon. After which proclamation ſo made, the ſaid treſpaſſors came to the ſaid riuer, with more greater routes & riots then euer they did before, not eſteeming nor regarding the ſaid letters of priuie ſeale, & there ſpoiled at diuers times eight troughs of wheate, rie, flower, and diuers other goods and cattels, & the people of the ſame troughs did throw ouer the boord, and diuers of them drowned, and the ſterns of the ſaid troughes did cut away, and did threaten the owner of the ſaid goods and cattels, and alſo the people of the ſaid troughs, that they ſhould not be ſo hardie, to carie no maner of vitaile by the ſaid ſtreame, much nor little, for Lord nor for Ladie: And that they would hew all to pieces the ſaid boaces, if they came an other time by the coaſtes of the ſaid Foreſt of Deane: for the which riot and rebellion, no perſon of the ſaid towne of Tewkeſbury, nor of the Countrie adioyning, dare not carie any Corne, nor other goods nor cattels in the ſaid riuer, nor purſue to haue remedie for ſuch oppreſſions and griefes to them done. Foraſmuch as the ſaid Foreſt of Deane, and Hundreds be very large, and the people inhabiting and reſiant in the ſame, verie wilde, and nigh adioyning to the countrey of Wales: And all the Commons of the ſame Foreſt and Hundreds of one affinitie, and confederacie in malice and riot, not pondering nor regarding the law, nor the officers and miniſters of the ſame, nor caring of the proces, nor puniſhment of the law of the land, inſomuch that they will not obey, but at their owne will, any miniſter of the kings lawes, nor execution of the ſame: nor the officers nor miniſters of the law of the ſaid Countie, dare not in any wiſe come into the ſaid Foreſt, to execute any matter or proces of the law, againſt the will and intent of the Commons of the Foreſt and Hundred aforeſaid. Our ſoueraigne Lord the king, hauing tender reſpect & conſideration of the ſaid miſchiefes, and alſo conſidering the inconueniences, which be like to inſue & follow vpon the ſame, and vpon that willing to reſiſt the malice of ſuch tranſgreſſors & offendors, and to prouide haſtie and conuenable remedie for his ſaid faithfull liege people, ſo grieued in this behalfe, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, being in this preſent parliament, and at the ſpeciall requeſt of the ſaid Commons there aſſembled, hath ordeined by authoritie of the ſame parliament, that in euery ſuch caſe hereafter to come, or elſe had, or chaunced the laſt yeere paſſed, the Shirife of the ſaid Countie, or the Bailifes of the Towne of Glouceſter, for the time being, or one of them, vpon paine of forfaiture of xx. li. to be leuied of their landes, goods, and cattels, to the vſe of our Soueraigne Lord the king, make proclamation at the ſaid towne of Glouceſter, within foure dayes next after notification made to them, or to any of them by the perſons ſo indamaged, or by any other in their names, of ſuch iniuries and treſpaſſes done, that the ſaid treſpaſſors and offendors ſhall reſtore in the ſame towne of Gloceſter, within fifteene dayes after the ſaid proclamation, to the ſaid perſons ſo indamaged, their ſaid corne and marchandiſes, goods, and cattels ſo taken, or the verie value of the ſame, with reaſonable amendes for their damages of ſuch taking. After which proclamation, if the ſaid treſpaſſors do not reſtore the ſaid corne & marchandiſes, goods, and cattels, or the value of the ſame, to the parties ſo grieued, in the forme aforeſaid, with reaſonable amends for their damages, nor that the ſaid treſpaſſors be not brought to the kings priſons to the Caſtle of Glouceſter for the ſaid treſpaſſes, by the officers of the ſaid Forreſt and hundreds, or by the Comminalties of the ſame, to be demeaned in ſuch caſe by the king and his Councell: that then by conſideration of the ſtatute of Wincheſter, put for the robberie of any perſon, which giueth an action for him which is robbed, againſt the Hundred, within which the ſame robberies is done, after the forme of the ſame ſtatute, the ſaid Comminalties ſhall be charged of the ſame corne & merchandiſes, goods, and cattels ſo taken, or of the verie value of the ſame, to the parties ſo grieued, to ſatiſfie them of their damages for the ſame taking. And that the ſaid parties ſo indamaged and grieued, may haue their generall actions of debt, againſt the ſaid Comminalties of the ſaid Forreſt and Hundred, of the ſumme of money, to which the value of the corne, merchandiſes, goods, and cattels ſo taken doe extend. And although the ſaid Comminalties be no Comminalties corporate, yet they ſhall haue proces in ſuch actions of debt, by ſummons, attachments, and diſtreſſe, as if he were to haue an action of debt at the common Law, ſo that if the ſaid Comminalties make default at the ſecond diſtreſſe in ſuch actions, that then the partie which ſhall ſue, ſhall haue iudgement to recouer his debt againſt the ſaid Comminalties, after the ſupposall of their goods, in the forme aforeſaid, with his reaſonable damages and expences. And whatſoeuer iſſue triable by inqueſt in the ſaid Forreſts and Hundreds ſhall happen to be taken to ſuch actions, it ſhall be tried by inqueſt of the bodie of the ſaid Countie out of the ſame Forreſt and Hundreds. And that the goods and cattels of euery ſinguler perſon, of the ſaid Comminalties for the time being, ſhall be had, taken, and holden in law conuict, as the common goods and cattels of the ſame Comminalties, touching the returne, ſeruing and all executions of writs, proceſſe, & iudgements, in and of the ſaid actions. And that euery ſinguler perſon of the ſaid forreſt and comminalties, haue power by the authoritie of the ſaid parliament, to attach & arreſt the ſaid treſpaſſors by their bodies, aſwell within the ſaid forreſt as without, & them ſo arreſted, to commit to the ſaid priſon. And that the keeper of the ſame priſon, vpon paine of xl. li. to be leuied of his goods & cattels, lands, and tenements, to the vſe of our ſoueraigne Lord the king, ſhall ſafely keepe euery perſon ſo committed to his cuſtodie, till the time that the king or his Councel hath ordeyned or prouided their deliuerance of record. And if the goods or cattels of any ſinguler perſon or perſons of the ſaid Forreſt and Hundreds, being not guiltie of the ſaid robberies, happen to be put in execution, becauſe of any ſuch actions and iudgements: that then the ſaid perſon or perſons ſo being not guiltie, may haue their ſpeciall action of debt, or treſpaſſe vpon their caſe, of the goods & cattels ſo put in execution, againſt the ſaid treſpaſſors, to recouer their damages, aſwell for the value of the goods or cattels ſo put in execution, as for their damages and coſtes which happened to be had, becauſe of ſuch actions of debt, & they ſhall haue ſuch proces in the ſaid actions of debt, or treſpaſſe, as is to be had in the ſaid actions of debt for the ſaid perſons ſo indammaged and ſpoyled, An.8.H.6.cap.27.
